Says Ethiopia Plans Resistance To Any Attacks

Emperor Inform Italy Any Invasion Will Be Strong-

INDEPENDENCE TO BE PRESERVED

Fiery Statement On Situation Is Issued By Head
Of Ethiopians

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
ADDIS ABABA, July 20.—
Formally rejecting any solution of the Italo-Abyssinian dispute that might impair Ethiopia's independence or sovereignty, Emperor Haile Selassie today informed Italy any invasion of his soil would be resisted with grim determination.

The black-bearded emperor, who only two days ago in a vigorous speech to parliament called upon all Ethiopians to follow him into battle against a nation he accuses of "murder and blood lust", issued a fiery statement outlining the entire situation.

It was intended, he said, to enable his people "to face what the future may bring."

"I consider it necessary," he said,
"to announce categorically our intention of refusing any solution involving Italian or other protectorate or mandate impairing the independence, sovereignty and freedom of our people."

"Will Resist Attack."
"Confident of the justice of our cause and knowing my government has omitted no effort to secure peaceful settlement, and intends to continue the same policy until the expected attack which we will resist with determination, we have deemed it necessary to acquaint our people with the circumstances leading to the present grave situation."

"We will thus enable them to face what the future may bring."

"Italy is seeking a pretext to initiate a campaign of villification with a view to eventual conquest."

"She perceives the rapidly increased influence of our imperial fell in the lower part of the city

Two visitors added themselves to the Jordan Game Farm during the past few days. Two big buck deer, browsing around looking for food or adventure, wandered into one of the enclosures of the farm and decided to stay. Attendants at the farm saw to it that the bucks had plenty of food and water and they seem to have adopted the game farm as their home. One of them is a ten point buck and the other an eight point. Apparently they had wandered up from the Slippery Rock Valley and are in no hurry to leave the farm.

Weather conditions yesterday and a year ago, were almost identical.
The temperature reached the same maximum figure, and there was precipitation the same amount of rain fell during a storm which swept the district.

SOME DEATHS ARE REPORTED

(International News Service)
Temperatures throughout Pennsylvania began to mount again today after general storms had brought an overnight relief from yesterday's sweltering conditions that reached and even broke the heat records in many sections.

The highest official mercury reading reported was at Franklin, where a searing sun drove thermometers to 103 degrees, one degree under the highest reading for at least 18 years. At Adamstown, Lancaster county, an unofficial high of 107 degrees was reported.

All sections suffered under the blazing skies. Several deaths were reported and many prostrations were caused by the heat wave. The storms that followed also caused several fatalities, while property damage was extensive.

Two men died in Philadelphia from the heat. William Thorpe, 59, succumbed while climbing an ele-

Youths Suspected In Car Robbery

Trio Picked Up At Warren, Ohio, For Hold-up Near Butler, Pa.

(International News Service)
BUTLER, Pa., July 20.—Three youthful suspects were arrested in Warren, O., today, several hours after they were alleged to have stopped two Tarentum, Pa., motorists on the Saxburg road through a ruse and robbed them of their car and belongings. Butler state police announced.

The prisoners gave their names as "Red" Brown, 20, Howard Clark, 21 and Frank Blako, 20, and told Warren police they were from the New York and Philadelphia areas. Butler county authorities left with the holdup victims to return the trio where they are to be charged with highway robbery.

The victims, Martin Trusick and Howard Mathewson, reported they were held up, stripped of their trousers and shoes and left trussed up at the side of the road by three youths who brought them to a stop by standing in the path of their car.
Each bound separately, the victims worked themselves loose and immediately called state police from a roadhouse near the scene of the robbery.

According to local state patrolmen, the suspects were riding in the Trusick car which they said still contained the trousers and shoes when stopped. No estimate was immediately given of the amount allegedly stolen in money and valuables.

Karpis Named As Possible Leader Of Holdup Gang

Believe Public Enemy No. 1
Leader Of Chester, Pa., Bank Robbers

(International News Service)
CHESTER, Pa., July 20.—America's current public Enemy No. 1—Alvin Karpis, fugitive kidnaper—was named today as the possible leader of the gangsters who held up the Delaware County National bank's branch office here and escaped with $48,000 in cash.

The Karpis theory was advanced by Superintendent of Police James H. Davenport, Chester. He said he reached his conclusion on the information that a number of long distance telephone calls between Chester and Detroit, Karpis's home city had been put through during the last seven days.

"Karpis probably did not take part in the holdup," Davenport said, "but I firmly believe his mob pulled the job, aided by Philadelphia confederates."

Karpis, the object of an intensive manhunt by G-men for months, fled through this part of the country a few months ago after shooting his way out of Atlantic City. He kidnapped an Allentown and Philadelphia doctor and forced him to drive him and a companion into Ohio, where the physician was left bound and gagged in his car.

Wife Beater Is Suicide Victim

Ends Life By Hanging Self In Jail After Norristown Conviction

(International News Service)
NORRISTOWN, Pa., July 20.—
Less than 12 hours after he was found guilty of beating his wife with a blackjack, Randall Glynn, 49 of North Wales, committed suicide early Monday by hanging himself in a cell at Montgomery county prison here.

The body, suspended from a cell door by a bed sheet, was cut down by a prison guard who vainly attempted to restore the prisoner's life with artificial respiration.
Glynn was arrested six weeks ago when he beat his wife while afflicted with the hallucination that she possessed a large sum of money and was hiding it from him. He was to have been sentenced on August 2nd.

World Powers Take Steps To Protect Their Diplomats In Ethiopia; Fearing War

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)
Cairo, July 20.—Alarmed over the seeming certainty of war between Italy and Abyssinia, the world powers took urgent measures today to protect their diplomats in Ethiopia.
Representations were made to Addis Ababa, the capital, asking guarantees for diplomatic officials there in event of hostilities, and the British government took even more practical measures, sending a million sandbags from Egypt to protect the British legation.

Consensus in Egypt and the Sudan is that war is now inevitable.

The only question is when the zero hour will come.

In view of fact the League of Nations council plans to meet July 29 to consider the situation, it is feared war will break out earlier than previously expected.

It is anticipated, however, that weather conditions on the Eritrean-Ethiopian frontier and in Italian Somaliland may render an early Italian offensive difficult.

A check up today showed approximately 120,000 Italian troops are enroute from Italy.

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)
ROME, July 20.—Japan and Italy clashed today on the sub-was revealed here, went to the Japanese foreign office to make representations regarding the crowding out of Italian goods from Abyssinia by cheaper Japanese products, but was turned away with a counter-re-

The counselor pointed out to the Japanese officials that the influx of Japanese goods into Abyssinia was "check-mating" the import of Italian goods provided for under the Italo-

Assistant To Downie Arrives

Joseph T. Beltz Here To As-

Direction

REORGANIZATION BEING LAUNCHED

All activities of the Relief Works Division ceased today at noon with the arrival from Harrisburg of Jos.
T. Beltz, who has been appointed assistant director to J. Vale Downie, director of Area 14 Works progress Administration.

The appointment of Mr. Beltz as assistant director has not been officially announced as yet and he had nothing to say as to the present of future W. Leslie Wilson, who has been assistant director of the RWD notified all the employees of the RWD with the exception of the chief time keeper, injury clerk and clerical supervisor that they were through today.

Whether or not the dismissal of all employees is permanent, or is merely a step towards the building of the Works Progress Administration personnel here is not known.

Mr. Beltz has been in the relief work since November 1933 and has worked in 25 counties. He comes here to assist Mr. Downie, but would make no statement as to where the headquarters of the W. P.
A. would be in New Castle.

'Wedding Dress' Slayer Placed In Death Cell Of Prison

DOOMED MAN APPEARS CALM

(International News Service)
Bellefonte, Pa., July 20. Sherman L. Strawser, 29, doomed "wedding dress" slayer of his former employer, Charles Gable, arrived today at Rockview penitentiary where he is scheduled to die in the electric chair at 12:30 a. m. Monday.

Strawser arrived at the prison accompanied by Sheriff Carl Runkle of Snyder county, two deputies and two state troopers. When his automobile stopped in front of the death house block he alighted with his guards and stepped into the huge building. He immediately was taken up a winding stairway to an office where all condemned prisoners must go through the usual prison formalities.

Before being assigned to his death cell, Strawser's hair was cropped closely and he surrendered his civilian clothes for the death house garb.

Appears Calm.
Prison officials said he was calm and had nothing to say other than replies to routine questions.

Strawser pleaded guilty to killing Gable during a robbery that netted him $80. He confessed he intended to use the money to purchase a wedding dress for his sweetheart, Zeila Gill, 16, and pay her father's death penalty. After the death penalty was imposed, Strawser accused Zeila and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gill, of forcing him into the murder plot but a jury acquitted them.

In another attempt to escape death, the farmhand charged a friend, Newton Bingham, 18, was the actual slayer but later admitted this story was a lie.

CHILD LABOR LAW IS SIGNED BY GOVERNOR

error or they will automatically become law.

Introduced by Sen. Peter Graff, Armstrong, the child labor bill further strengthened existing law by prohibiting employment of children under 18 more than eight hours a day six days a week. These provisions formerly applied only to those under 16.

A lunch period of at least 30 minutes is also required for not more than five hours' continuous work. Night work is prohibited for those under 16 between 7 p. m. and 7 a. m. A schedule of hours and work and a digest of the law must be posted where minors under 18 are employed.

Employment certificates issued by local school authorities are now required for minors under 18 including those now already employed. Additional requirements are assurance of employment, a physical examination and proof of age.

Newsboys Permitted To Work.
Newsboys under 18 are permitted to work 51 hours a week, nine hours a day. Those under 16 may not work at night during the hours from 8 p. m. to 6 a. m. Employment certificates are required only for those under 16.

A nine-hour day and 51-hour week were permitted messenger boys where only one is employed in an office under a special provision.

Children under 18 are prohibited from employment in an establishment where alcoholic liquors are manufactured, sold or handled. A 21-year minimum age also was provided for direct serving or handling of liquors in retail establishments.

In signing the measure, Governor Earle recalled that more than a score of administration labor bills were introduced in the legislature but only two survived final passage. These were the child labor bill and one outlawing coal and iron police which has been signed. The executive blamed the senate labor and industry committee, of which Dr. William C. Hunsicker, Philadelphia, was chairman, for "butchery" of the others.

Other Bills Signed.
One of the other bills signed provided that two years' college work with certain requirements shall constitute a preliminary medical education instead of one college year. It also required a certificate of American citizenship or a declaration of intention with an application for a license to practice medicine.

Another of a series of municipal budget measures approved regulates methods of making appropriations, expenditures, contracts and purchases by poor districts and the making of annual budgets on uniform forms prepared by representatives of the directors of the poor, the welfare and internal affairs departments. It also requires that a copy of the budget be filed with internal affairs.

The redemption period on land acquired by county commissioners at tax sales was extended from five years under another bill. The governor said this measure, which was retroactive, gives taxpayers additional time to recover lands in which they have investments.

Laborers or mechanics employed on public works must have been residents of the state at least 90 days prior to their employment under another measure.

The governor vetoed a bill for a joint legislative committee to study the state government, asserting the work was now being done by a joint committee on finances.

companies to the home of Michael C. K. of 111 Miller avenue, where a bolt had struck the chimney, causing damage of about $10.

At 2:15 the second call came from box 212, calling No. 2 and B. K. companies to the home of George Hetsch of 117 1/2 Park avenue, a large frame double house owned by J. Q. L. Roberts. The bolt struck the chimney, causing damage of about $25.

As firemen were leaving the scene they were summoned to the home of Mike Binder of 517 Wildwood avenue, where a bolt tore a section from the chimney and knocked a hole in the roof. The damage in this instance amounted to about $50.

An unusually large number of homes have been struck by lightning during the past week. Two houses being hit Monday evening during the thunder storms which struck the city. In no instance, however has anyone been injured and the property damage has been small.

Hickory Township Man Seeks Republican Nomination For County Office

W. R. WALTON
To the Republican Voters of Lawrence County:

I seek the nomination for the office of County Commissioner. I live in Hickory Township and am by occupation a farmer. I have lived in the City of New Castle and was at one time Assistant General Foreman at the New Castle plant of the Standard Steel Car Company, also an employee of the Shenango Tin Mill for some time, and have had other business experience. If nominated and elected to this office it will be my purpose to learn and be fully acquainted with the details of the office and I will devote my entire time and attention to conducting the affairs of the county in the interest of all our people.

Your vote an disfluence will be appreciated.

Very truly,

JAPAN AND ITALY IN TRADE CLASH

due to their cheapness and "superior quality," giving little satisfaction on this score.

Then the spokesman drew the Italian official's attention to press messages from Rome criticizing Japan's past policies, and requested him to ask his superiors in Rome to maintain a more strict censorship of the press.

Such messages, said the foreign office spokesman, "tend to upset the good relations existing between the two countries."

Japan's economic interests in Abyssinia, which have grown rapidly in the past few years, recently have begun to parallel those of Italy, and the subject has been one of serious diplomatic conjecture ever since Italy began to prepare for a war against Abyssinia.

The position Japan would take in such a clash has been subject of much speculation. It was subject watched closely by the chancelleries of Europe and one which was brought into the foreground only this week with the diplomatic enigma brought about by the pledge of Japanese neutrality given by Yeto Sugimura, Japanese ambassador to Rome, and the prompt repudiation of such an assurance by the foreign office in Tokyo.

government will render further delay dangerous to realization of her plans, which have been known to us since last August.

"She has found nothing better than a drunken brawl between native employees of a commercial agency and local police to distort, exaggerate and misrepresent to the whole world as a grave international incident."

Reviewing the clash at Wal Wal, which he described as a "cowardly, unprovoked attack supported by tanks and airplanes," the emperor charged the assault had "obviously been prepared and planned in advance."

"After this," he said, "the Italians bombed and wounded our nationals. As proof of this, we have in our possession a number of bombs which failed to explode."

Demanding Apologies.
"Then assuming the attitude of the injured party, Italy demanded apologies and reparations and disregarded her treaty obligations to all other multi-lateral obligations evolved by the civilized world to assure peaceful settlement of international disputes."

"Pretending to accept arbitration following Ethiopia's first appeal to the League of Nations, Italy continued to press insistently for reparations and accelerated dispatch of troops and war materials."

"Recognizing that her military preparations and the bellicose attitude and statements of her spokesmen are untenable and unjustifiable morally and judicially, Italy seeks to justify refusal to execute her international engagements and her intention of conquering Ethiopia by denouncing us as savages."

"At the same time, she urged the need for Italian action and the necessity of wiping out the stain of Adowa, although at the same time inconsistently belittling Adowa's importance."

"Italy seeks to create the impression Ethiopia has recently conquered and oppresses countries and peoples which from time immemorial have been integral parts of dependencies of our empire."

"She is also trying to create dissension between our races and religions, which have never been more united than today before menace was offered us daily by Italian statesmen and the government-controlled press."

Denounced As Savages.
"Italy justifies its belligerent attitude by denouncing Ethiopians as savages but proposes itself to have recourse to the most savage method of all. It thus may destroy the efficiency of the international organization created after the world war to further the cause of international peace."

"This attitude also threatens other nations with the loss of Italy's friendship if they permit nations to act as arbitrators, supply arms or favor efforts of the League of Nations to effect peaceful settlement."

"We have not omitted to inform our people of the refusal of certain nations to permit shipment of arms and provide facilities for the manufacture of war material for a nation which is not only seeking peace but which is determined to conserve its liberty against a nation which is flouting its engagements and avowing a preference for glorious war and cynically urging the necessity for expansion."

"The League of Nations covenant provided for sanctions against such nations but not against Ethiopia, which respects all its engagements and whose only fault is weakness. But she is none the less determined to defend her territorial integrity and political independence."

Funeral of Mrs. Brooks.

CHARGES AGAINST ITALY MAY BRING STRONG DEMANDS

upon all Ethiopians to sacrifice their lives if need be and follow him into war against Italy.

Considered Unwarranted
"The premier," the spokesman declared, "is taking a most serious view of the speech of the emperor of Abyssinia, the violence of which is considered unprecedented and unwarranted."

"If Duce's first impression, gained from press summaries, has been confirmed and strengthened after perusing the full text of the speech as delivered in parliament."

"In its original form, the address constitutes a much stronger offensive than the French translation provided by the Abyssinian foreign office for the benefit of the foreign press."

In view of this statement, it was considered extremely likely the Italian foreign office would make representations to Addis Ababa asking full explanation of the accusations brought against a sovereign European power.

Italy was believed to take chief exception to Haile Selassie's charge that Italy would not be satisfied with anything less than a "blood battle" to avenge its defeat at Adowa 40 years ago.

To Lodge Protest
London, July 20.—Premier Mussolini has instructed his minister in Addis Ababa to lodge a strong protest with the Ethiopian foreign office over Emperor Haile Selassie's recent address to parliament, charging it has gravely affected relations between Italy and Abyssinia, it was stated in an exchange telegraph dispatch from Rome.

A Reuter dispatch from Rome said when the text of the emperor's speech was first received, Italy felt so strongly it was suggested diplomatic relations should be severed.

A calmer view now prevails, however, the dispatch said, and such a step is not considered likely at present.

(Editor's Note: The emperor renewed his charges against Italy today.)

Minnick. An examination made at the hospital after his death, revealed that he had been crushed through the chest, dying of internal hemorrhages.

Believed Pittsburgh Youth
It was believed this morning that the body was that of Thomas Witherspoon, aged 17, of 21 Westfield avenue, West View, Pittsburgh, who has been missing from his home since yesterday morning, and who is said to have started away from home in search of work.

Coroner Orville Potter and State Highway Patrolman Betts, went to Mercer early this morning, when informed of the death of the boy. According to Coroner Potter, the boy was a gray, jersey sweater, with a zipper front; brown corduroy trousers, green shirt, and tennis shoes. He was about five feet six inches tall, with blue eyes and sandy hair, weighing about 120 pounds. His face was

IMITATION NIGHT CLUB IS SUCCESS

Decidedly clever and unique was a new kind of outdoor entertainment Friday evening, at the Huron avenue home of Mrs. C. R. Brenner, with Mrs. Harry Sturdevant associated hostess.

An Imitation Night Club was featured, the large number of guests many of whom were co-members of the East Side Garden club and their husbands, finding places at smartly decorated tables arranged about the lawn, brilliantly illuminated with are lights. Lounching chairs, gliders and settees added to the informal atmosphere which contributed to merry companionship.

Novel programs carrying snappy pencil and ink sketches which were the handwork of Miss Margaret Brenner, were found on the tables with lists as follows:

Programme
Dorothy Kastner—Danseuse and James Bradford—Accompanist.
Eileen Murphy—Radio Star of WJAS.
Robert Mantell and Julia Marlowe—Balcony Scene from Romeo and Juliet.
Master of Ceremonies—"Leon" Cramer.

The Club
"Delphinium"
Under the management of Mme. Anita (Brenner) Mme. Sylvia (Sturdevant).
Drinks Garden Club.
Dancing—Floor Show.
Cover Charge per person 20c.
The performers acquitted themselves remarkably well, their numbers being announced by Mme. Sylvia over a public address system in charge of Harry Armstrong. This was placed prominently in the yard, and previous to the program all the popular dance tunes were heard over it, providing delightful music for dancing on an improvised floor space.

From the pen of Mme. Anita originated the parody on Romeo and Juliet which was a scream. Even to the "balcony" which was a real one decorated in true fashion. Mrs. Earl McKnight was the impassioned Romeo calling upon his Juliet (Mrs. Brenner) to fly with him on a broomstick horse, but since the ladder couldn't be found at the right moment for the escape of the fair one, Father (Bob Brenner) appeared with parental objections just in time.

As Master of Ceremonies, Leonard Cramer, contributed his share of fun, putting the crowd in a good humor with his German song in which the group joined for the chorus.

After the program, light refreshments were served under the direction of the head waiter, Elder Bryan, and other young people who assisted throughout the evening, Jane Bryan, Letty Remley, Bobbie Sturdevant, Dan Remley, Gordon McKnight, Caroline Brenner, the latter also officiating as check girl, and Robert Brenner, who arranged the lighting.

Just as the merriment was at its height, a mock raid was staged which added its bit of realism. Corporal Orville Potter and Alderman Claude Mantz held "court" for the collection of fines, this little bit of intrigue on the part of the "Officers" adding materially to the Garden Club treasury.

Throughout, the affair was just about the best entertainment for social groups anywhere about town in many moons, and much praise was heard for both Mrs. Brenner and Mrs. Sturdevant who are often complimented for their ingenuity.

Next Friday evening, the East Side Garden club and guests will participate in a swimming party at Remleys near New Wilmington. The affair is scheduled for early evening with a box lunch later after a couple of hours in the water.

MRS. YOUNG HOSTESS MACON BRIDGE CLUB

As guests of Mrs. M. J. Young, of Hillcrest avenue, Friday evening, members of the Macon Bridge Club spent a pleasant evening at cards. Three tables were brought into play, with lovely prizes awarded the winners. Mrs. L. Moore, Mrs. A. Martin and Mrs. H. Deighley. Four club guests were present Mrs. R. Harris, Mrs. J. Chapman, Mrs. J. McCullough and Mrs. R. Showalter. During the progress of conversation, plans were made for a breakfast at Cascade Park for the next meeting, August 2.

Picnic On Lawn.
West Side club members had an informal afternoon of cards, with a picnic supper on the lawn following. Thursday, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Carr on West Washington street.

Prizes in the afternoon's contests were won by Mrs. Mary Travers, Miss Elizabeth Mitchell, Miss Winifred O'Connor and Mrs. James O'Laughlin. There were 14 guests, among whom was Mrs. Ella Costello of Pittsburgh, the guest of Mrs. Margaret Davis of West Washington street.

The next meeting will take place Thursday, August 1, at the home of Miss Elizabeth Mitchell on Leasure avenue.

Dean Reunion
Annual reunion of the Dean family will take place August 29, at Camp Perry, located 12 miles north of Mercer, on the Perry highway. The day's program is being arranged by the following officers and committees: president, H. L. Dean; vice president, C. C. Dean; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Mary Wright Dean.

Young Matrons Club
Members of the Young Matrons club and their husbands enjoyed a delightful picnic outing at Cascade Park Thursday evening. Covers were laid for 15 guests, at a table artistically decorated for a tasty supper.

The remainder of the evening was spent in the different amusements, dancing included. The next evening, Mrs. Viola Cebels, of West Clayton street, will be hostess at her home.

J. F. F. Club.
Miss Ellen McGowan has invited the J. F. F. club to her home on Lyndal street, Monday evening.

LUNCHEON-SPoon AT BROWN RESIDENCE

The beautiful home of Mrs. William M. Brown, on East street, was the scene of the Luncheon Spoon assembly Friday at one o'clock.

Several club guests shared in the event, there being places for 36 at attractively appointed tables, for an elegant luncheon menu. Afterwards, contract was in play the trophies falling to Mrs. Robert K. Aiken and Mrs. Katherine Miller.

As this was the final gathering until September, the hostess for the next affair was left undecided.

B. AND O. WOMEN HAVE BREAKFAST AT CASCADE

Another delightful activity in which members of the Women's Co-operative Traffic committee of the B. & O. have shared this summer, was a breakfast at Cascade park Friday morning.

Thirty-five sat down to an appetizing hot menu which was served under the direction of the following committee: Mrs. C. J. Benhart, chairman; Mrs. H. D. Horner, Mrs. Fred Fox, Mrs. H. G. Tetlow, Mrs. Theodore Nelson, Mrs. J. F. Titus, Mrs. J. Earl Davies, Mrs. M. R. Olmstead, Mrs. James H. Eagan and Mrs. H. D. Boyd.

After a business session later, most of the women went swimming, while others browsed about as they liked best. The next gathering will be in the form of a basket picnic at Cascade park August 22. Husbands and families will be included in this affair which promises to draw a large crowd.

MERRY WIDOWS HAVE MILL CREEK PICNIC

With their husbands as special guests the Merry Widows had a picnic Friday evening in cool Mill Creek Park, Youngstown, O. The feast was served at about 7 o'clock in a pretty spot. The after-hours were passed pleasantly in Idora Park.

There were seventeen present, including an out-of-town guest, Mrs. William Lowman, of Cleveland, O. The club will have no more meetings until fall.

Porter-Logan
Mr. and Mrs. William C. Porter of 706 Young street make known today the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Robert S. Logan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Logan of Winter avenue.

The ceremony took place Monday, July 15, in the parsonage of the First Christian church, with the Rev. G. S. Bennett officiating. Both young people are graduates of the New Castle high school, the bride with the class of 1932 and the groom with the class of 1933.

Mrs. Logan is connected with the Bell Telephone Company and Mr. Logan with the New Castle Drug Company.

At Carson Home
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Carson extended the hospitality of their home on Ryan avenue, Friday evening, to the Social Eight Club. Cards were provided for amusement, the favors falling to Mrs. R. H. Walker and D. E. Sturdevant. In serving a tasty repast, the hostess had the assistance of Mrs. E. C. Burge. Garden flowers were attractive decorations about the house.

Plans were completed for a ham fry, at Cascade Park Thursday evening of next week, and for the regular meeting, August 2, the hostess will be Mrs. D. E. Sturdevant, of Waldo street.

Butler Girls Picnic
Seated around a brilliant red and white decorated table in the Cascade Park grove Friday evening were 25 members and friends of the Butler Girls. The delicious picnic dinner was served at about 6 o'clock and the later hours were passed pleasantly with chat and the park diversions.

Special guests were Mrs. H. J. Book, Miss Jennie Badger, Miss Coulter, Mrs. Arthur Boyard, Ralph Scowden and John Ferris.

Mrs. Arthur Armstrong was in charge of arrangements.

Oregon Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace of Portland, Ore., are spending some time visiting in this vicinity, having come for the reunion of former members of the Fourth Presbyterian church, which was held Friday at Cascade Park.

They have been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Yoho of Katherine street, but next week they plan to go to Mt. Jackson for a few days stay with his brother, William Wallace, and family.

T. W. C. Picnic
T. W. C. Kensington had its annual picnic at Cascade Park at noon on Thursday with thirty present. Included in the group were a number of special guests, the Mesdames Woodard, Gilkey, Strittmater and their children, Mrs. Treadwell and daughter Roberta, Miss Helen Allen and Miss Laura Johnston, the latter of Beaver Falls, and Mrs. Gross, of Akron, O.

In four weeks another picnic will be conducted at the park. It will be a basket picnic at noon.

UNDINE PHILLIPS ENGAGED TO WED

Socialites in New Castle are interested in the announcement of both the engagement and the date of the wedding of Undine Phillips of Butler, which were revealed Friday at a tea which her sister, Mrs. Roland Leroy Ehrman, gave in Elm Court, Butler, the home of their father, Benjamin Dwight Phillips.

Miss Phillips, who is well known here through visits at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Grace Phillips, Johnson of Moody avenue, will be married August 20 to Frank Louis Weigand, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Louis Weigand of Butler, and the service will be read in Elm Court.

The bride-elect attended the Emma Willard school in Troy, N. Y., and went to the Garland school in Boston for a year. She was graduated from the Erskine school in Boston two years ago.

Mr. Weigand was graduated from Shady Side Academy and cum laude from Harvard last month, and in order that he may complete the three-year course in the Harvard law school, he and his fiancée plan to live in Cambridge, Mass.

INTERESTING TALK FEATURES PROGRAM

At the home of Mrs. George R. Balph, on Hazelcroft avenue, Friday afternoon, the Women's Missionary society, of Highland U. P. church, was privileged to hear an interesting talk by Miss Humphrey, of Sharon, who is in New Castle for a short time doing special work.

Mrs. Ellwood Gilbert was leader for the afternoon's program which also disposed of routine business and an outline of future activities. Among the guests were Mrs. Luella Brownlee and Mrs. Edward Balph, the latter of whom is home on a furlough from the mission fields.

The serving of cooling refreshments by the hostess was a concluding pleasure of a delightful afternoon.

LAKEWOOD OUTING FOR JUANITA CLUB

Motoring out to Lakewood Friday evening about dinner time, members of the Juanita club, with their husbands and families enjoyed a picnic supper.

Covers were laid for 25 at the long tables, centered with pretty flowers. On the committee in charge were: Mrs. Roy Beals, Mrs. Earl Bishop and Mrs. Raymond Smith. In the evening, the group rambled about the place, the children having fun on the swings, while the grown-ups did as they pleased.

The next meeting is dated for Friday, August 9, at the home of Mrs. William Naysmith, Ray street.

TWO SOCIETIES HAVE PICNIC LAST EVENING

Epworth M. E.'s home and foreign missionary societies united on Friday evening and enjoyed a picnic at Cascade Park. The basket supper, for which arrangements were made by the two society presidents, Mrs. W. J. Marshall and Mrs. Carl Hart and their aides, was served in the grove at 6 o'clock.

There were about 25 present.

See Wonderful Pageant
Mrs. Maud Neff, Mrs. Mary J. Conzetti, Mrs. Rachel Fox, Miss Marie Fox, and Mrs. Hattie Nowling have returned from Cleveland, where they were in attendance at the Prosperity Pageant of the Woman's Benefit association. It was given at Cleveland's wonderful playground and stadium by the officers, guards, juniors and members as a part of their Supreme convention.

The Cleveland papers called the Pageant the most wonderful sight of color and maneuvering ever shown to the people of that city; 55,000 people were in the audience while 7 thousand children and grown-ups were in the cast. Miss Ann Parttridge, of Port Huron, Mich., portrayed the coronation of a queen.

DEPARTING MEMBERS HONORED AT PICNIC

Nearly 50 were in attendance Friday night at Beech Glen on the Slippery Rock, when the Young Married People's Bible class of the Epworth M. E. church held its monthly dinner meeting. The meeting, beyond the ordinary monthly dinner meeting as it was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Huey Tucker, class members, who leave soon for the Pacific coast.

At 6:30 dinner was served, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Campbell being joint hosts. Following the dinner a campfire circle was formed and the evening was spent with songs of the class. During the informal program Mr. and Mrs. Tucker were presented with a pair of book ends as a token of remembrance.

CROWD CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY AT CAMP
Knowing that Friday marked the 22nd birthday of George Freeman of Fairmont avenue, a large number of friends wended their way Friday evening to the Freeman cottage at Rambler's Rest for an evening of diversion.

There were about 40 in the group, which danced, swam, played games and had a good time generally, until a late hour, when a tempting supper was served by the host's mother, Mrs. Charles Freeman, assisted by Mrs. Harry Finner, Mrs. Edward H. Fritz and Mrs. Albert Kupanek.

CHURCH REUNION AT CASCADE PARK

In spite of the storm which came up Friday afternoon to deter many persons from attending, there was a group of 75 people at the annual reunion of former members of the disbanded Fourth Presbyterian church, at Cascade Park.

Dinner was served in the grove at 6:30 by the table committee, composed of Mrs. W. D. Jones, Mrs. Floyd Reed, Mrs. J. L. Maxwell and Mrs. Louis Bonish.

During the brief business session following the officers from last year were retained: J. C. Lewis, president; Charles Bright, vice president; Vernor Bright, secretary-treasurer. It was agreed that Cascade Park would be the place of next year's gathering, the third Friday of July.

Short talks were given by several of the out-of-town guests in attendance Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace of Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Monnin, Mrs. Loraine Cox and daughters, Deloris and Lois, of Youngstown, Roy Kerr of Niles, O., was also present from a distance.

A CRYSTALLIZING SITUATION

WHETHER it is peace or war that is being brought closer as the result of Emperor Selassie's appeal to his countrymen to fight Italy and die rather than live without liberty, remains to be seen. Italy is expected to permit herself to be dragged to the League Council meeting at Geneva next week.

Meanwhile, however, Mussolini has permitted the Italian press to inflame the populace with belated and unimpressive tales of Ethiopian outrages upon Italian colonists. It has been assumed, moreover, that once the King of Kings and Lion of Judah had issued a call to arms, there was no stopping the tribesmen, who would demand the privilege of fighting the Italians or turn and destroy their leaders.

On the surface, hostilities appear inevitable, yet if consequences of actual warfare are thus brought to fuller realization the good offices of the league may be facilitated.

"THREE O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING"

In spite of the comparatively small amount of traffic between the hours of one and six a. m., a great many crashes occur. Usually they are the bad ones, too. If you don't believe it ask your police—or even your milkman.

There are reasons, of course. The joy riders are out hell-bent on wheels and they cause plenty of trouble. But many other motorists are rushing to get home faster than they would travel ordinarily, under the impression that lighter traffic means safer streets.

On the assumption that no other cars are out they fail to watch intersections; or they are careless in observing light changes or boulevard stops. Now when two drivers approaching at right angles, have this same idea about deserted streets, a crash is likely. And usually it is a serious one because early morning speed often demands too much of brakes.

Thoughtlessness exacts its tribute in many ways. The driver who expects safety cannot "assume" very much of anything in traffic. Old Man Accident never sleeps, you know.

SOCIAL REFORMING

Chairman Farley is to spend some weeks out around the country to get at first hand the truth about the feeling toward the New Deal. The recent revolt in the house has apparently aroused the New Dealers for the first time to the ominous sound of the distant rumblings. They frankly are puzzled that the country could do otherwise than eagerly embrace their program for achieving great social reform. So the astute Mr. Farley takes it upon himself to find out what is the trouble.

It is recalled that Woodrow Wilson once made some comment so appropriate to the situation that it should commend itself to the consideration of the New Dealers while they await the outcome of Mr. Farley's political quest. They will, in ambulating through the writings of this distinguished Democrat, read that to Wilson it was the strength of a Democratic polity.

... that there are so many minds to be consulted and brought to agreement that nothing can be wisely done for which the thought, and good deal more than the thought, of the country, its sentiment and purpose, have not been prepared."

And there follows this bit of enlightened counsel and wisdom: "Social reform is a matter of co-operation, and if it be of a novel kind requires an infinite deal of converting to bring the efficient majority to believe in it and support it. Without there be agreement and support it is impossible."

Co-operation! Agreement and support! How pertinent to the futile pile-driving tactics recently displayed in Washington!

PACIFIC AIR ROUTE SERVICE

Recent test flights of the clipper ship across the Pacific Ocean were so successful that the Pan-American Airways will begin early in the fall operating a three-day service to China.

The Pan-American Airways management has had long experience in operating planes over the Caribbean Sea and South American waters and is planning with extreme care to establish a route over the Pacific, the first ocean to be spanned with regular commercial service. Bases are being made ready on islands so that hops of clipper planes will not be too long to interfere with maintaining schedules.

The plan for regular airplane service is not so strange as most people may think, for ordinary steamer passage from the United States to the Orient takes from 10 to 12 days, the fastest speed being only 25 miles an hour, 10 miles below that recently made by the Normandie, the new French ship, on the Atlantic Ocean. Cutting the time to three days is of importance, and there are other considerations that led to the extensive plans for the new service.

Weather conditions on the Pacific present less hazards than on the Atlantic where steamer service has been developed to such an extent that there is not the demand for fast plane service. Though the distance over the Pacific is greater, intermediate base points with greater advantages may be established more easily than in the Atlantic. This is one of the factors that led to planning for the service.

The new service will mean much to business interests on both sides the Pacific and should promote the better understanding that makes for peace.

TAXATION PLUS ECONOMY

It will be a good thing for the federal authorities to place continuing emphasis upon the development of a tax program for the purpose of balancing the budget rather than for that of providing funds for added expenditures. The American people would not relish the shouldering of new fiscal burdens if that were to mean increased governmental extravagance. They are certain to feel that any surplus of revenue should be used to reduce the huge national deficit that has come in the wake of unprecedented expenditures.

Persistent clarification of this position will be good psychology. The country has been in a veritable orgy of spending. And, like it or not, the taxpayers soon must begin to help wipe out the staggering indebtedness that has ensued.

Of course, the Roosevelt administration should start, at the same time, toward prudent reduction of government costs. There is no sound reason why all the hardships of budget balancing should be foisted upon the taxpayers. A rigorous slashing of bureaucratic expenses should be the accompaniment of higher fiscal rates.

In view of these and other weighty considerations, it is apparent that congress displays wisdom in its determination to proceed with the utmost caution in answering the white house demand for tax reform. A precipitate raising of levies might be avoided if there is a sincere effort to cut administrative costs in strict conformity with the minimum demands of public service.

THE CHILD IS THE TEACHER
My friend is a grandfather and all his life until he became a grandfather he was a skeptic. He was certainly an agnostic, and for all I know he may even have been an atheist. But I doubt that he was an atheist, because he is intelligent and I never knew a truly intelligent man who flatly declared he did not believe in the existence of God.

But some years now, there has been a small boy in the household of my friend. . . . And living with and watching that small boy has changed his life.

In his loving association with this youngster he has come up against mysteries that have been too deep for his skepticism. The child is intelligent, quick in his understanding, eager to learn, advanced beyond his years.

Although he is only 4 years old, he can read. . . . I know this is true, because I saw him reading at least a year ago. Even then he could pick out words in the headlines of newspapers. He plays the piano well. . . . Not long ago his grandfather heard him, in another room, reading 'Gene Field's poem about the gingham dog and the calico cat, out loud. And when the youngster came to the end, to the part about the dog and the cat eating each other up, he laughed all to himself and said: 'Aw, they couldn't do that!'

Only an intelligent child would laugh and accept the poem without question. So the grandfather told me one day that living with this child, being daily in the presence of his physical growth and mental development, had compelled him to believe in the existence of a Force beyond the understanding of man. . . . He can continue to be cynical about men and their motives, he tells me, but he can no longer be cynical about the mystery that surrounds this little boy and surrounds all other growing things. . . . It is true, as he has learned, that the child is not only the father of the man, but his teacher.

WHAT ARE YOUR JUST AWARD?

Most people would be happy if only they were content with what they have.

But few persons have that blissful disposition.

Regardless of that to which they are entitled, men and women grumble if they don't get what they want. They seem to think it must be a sort of magic that gets things for others which they have not been able to buy.

But they would not be willing to make the required effort; yet they complain. Be frank with yourself and look at things from the angle of sustained effort.

Would you be willing to pay the same price those who have succeeded have paid to gain their privileges? Money, position and prestige represent hardship, self-denial and hard work.

It is pretty well proven by those who inherit money and don't know how to keep it, let alone increase it. Some relative took the hard knocks and accumulated property while they merely enjoy the fruits of another.

If you will balance what you have against the effort you have expended, you should feel fairly well paid. Think this over.

THE PRICE

He thought it clever at the time; The trick seemed rather neat. It bordered on the edge of crime And was, in fact, deceit. But courts are troublesome men find And most of us are not inclined To bother with a cheat.

"I got away with it!" he said. "There's nothing he can do." Cheats very seldom look ahead. Or think their conduct through. The gain to get is all they see. They fancy they are going free When none will they pursue.

But now while walking down the street He finds his dismay. He fears the man he wronged to meet. And several times a day Around the corner he must go And walk an extra block or so To dodge him on the way.

At banquets or at dinners now He cannot be at ease. The perspiration lines his brow Whenever that man he sees; And just because he played the cheat.

From crowded room or busy street Where none pursue, he flees. (Copyright, 1935, Edgar A. Guest)

Why does a genius marry a dumb-bell? Well, why does a great man read detective stories?

Most people have no time to bother with their enemies 'cause they are too busy trying to get even with their friends.

Kings used to creep on the floor in England on Good Friday to a crucifix, the ceremony being intended to show the humility of the sovereign. The queens would always follow the kings (also creeping along the carpet on all fours. Then the king and queen would proceed to a chapel and once more both would creep on their hands and knees to the altar and the cross.

An American officer was inspecting entries guarding the line in Flanders. He came across a raw-looking yeoman.

ATMOSPHERE

Every business organization office, every workshop where men and women spend their days, every four walls sheltering a family, has an atmosphere of its own. What makes it? Not warm or cold air coming from the outside or through the steam pipes. That attracting or repelling atmosphere that you immediately sense as you enter the room is created by human thought.

We have a man friend of whom we are very fond. He frequently urges us to drop over and visit him. Sometimes we go, but the minute we enter the house it chills us even though the thermometer on the outside registers 100 above. The furniture is fine. The paintings and original rugs cost a small fortune, but the woman who entirely out of tune with his vibrations and so you have an ice house instead of a home.

Sometimes one man in a business organization or in a group of workmen will throw everything out of harmony. One day we went into a big shoe factory. On the third floor hung a big wooden thermometer. We asked the superintendent what his mission was. He said it registered every day the efficiency of that department. When it registered low, we asked him to what he attributed it. He said when that happened he knew that one or more of the men had had trouble at home before they came to work. Trouble at home? "Well, brother, you may have all sorts of kinds of trouble but if you have been spared that one, get down on your knees, thank your Maker, pull your belt up another notch and go ahead. Some families certainly grow rapidly, as in this account from a country newspaper: "Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fremont are the proud parents of a fourth son since last Thursday."

"No," answered Cobb, "not if I held an ace."

Balfour Justifies Japan.
Free Competition Is Urged.
Timber Warfare In West.Central Press
New York Bureau
235 East 45th street
By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, July 20.—One of the most significant speeches of the year is just coming to light in the United States. It was made a month ago. And the man who made it was Sir Arthur Balfour. He was speaking before the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris.

Sir Arthur spoke in favor of "free competition." And that meant, "Do not be antagonistic toward Japan." He represents the British industrialist point of view.

Here is the gist of the speech quoted here because it involves the policy that is likely to govern the course of Great Britain and the United States:

"Many of us are alive today who remember the tremendous industrial expansion of Germany, which began by being based on a lower standard of living than that obtaining in Great Britain or the United States and on the production of cheaper classes of goods. It was then anticipated that Germany would secure the bulk of the world's trade, but, slowly but surely, the standard of living in Germany rose and the types of articles which were produced in that country which Germany accumulated by her active export trade she became one of the greatest buyers of raw materials, tropical and semi-tropical products, and even manufactured goods, and the prophecies of former times were proved to be wrong.

"The same phenomenon can now be observed in Japan. Japan, having studied with great perseverance the productions of all the greatest countries in the world, is making use of her population, whose standard of living is admittedly low, but entirely satisfactory to them, and by extraordinary organization and the adaptation of the most modern machinery is producing goods for export at prices which make it difficult for other countries to compete.

"It must be said that the Japanese at the same time are realizing that it pays them to look after the welfare and education of their workers. The dictum that you cannot export unless you import and that you cannot import unless you export is today coming true. Japan is one of the greatest buyers of wool, cotton and other raw materials, as well as manufactured articles, and is a very expanding market.

"In addition to this the fact that Japan can produce goods of a suitable quality for large native communities at prices which are within their reach is expanding the world's trade generally and producing desires for goods which other older industrial countries can supply.

"While competition of this nature may be harassing to individuals, as a world economic factor it has great possibilities of good."

TIMBER WARFARE
Easterners have had little idea of the fierceness of the struggle between timber workers and timber companies on the north Pacific coast. Pictures have displayed national guardsmen sweeping through Tacoma, but the background has been obscure.

For more than three months workers have been striking for a 30-hour week, 75 cents an hour and union recognition. According to the strikers, men were averaging $13 a week, for three or four days' work a week last winter.

On the other hand, the timber corporations—the Weyerhaeusers being the largest—assert the men are being guided by Reds.

Governor Clarence D. Martin of Washington, a Democrat, has made free use of national guardsmen. Much of the difficulty has been over pickets.

The strikers have made charges of brutality; and employers have made similar charges.

In one instance, suit has been brought against the state government for damages in behalf of two strikers. According to Hubert K. Spahr, president of the Tacoma Sawmill and Timber Workers' union, two pickets were arrested by national guardsmen and forced to run ahead of the guardsmen's car for two miles. When they fell exhausted, they were beaten until they rose and went on again, the allegation asserts.

A mediation board appointed June 26 by Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins has no power to force arbitration.

BITTER
A short time ago this writer wrote a column saying that the greatest defect of the Roosevelt administration was a lack of capable executives.

With which L. Tate Cromley, lawyer, of Mount Vernon, O., agrees. Mr. Cromley writes:

"This is the most constructive and sensible article you have written for months."

"The lack of capable executives is the real reason for the president's blundering policies. Surrounding himself with academic theorists who never have had any practical experience, who never have run a payroll, and whose only knowledge of finance is the regular pay check which they get every two weeks, it is no wonder that the president is piling up a national debt from which we shall never be free, except through repudiation or actual currency inflation."

"The president thinks he is either buying off a revolution or buying up an electorate for his selfish political advantage."

"Five or six years ago when the Republicans raised a national campaign fund among Republicans of three or four million dollars, the president denounced the same as the purchase of an election, but now he is going to use between four and five billions of dollars of other people's money, now public funds, to perpetuate himself and his satellites in power, and he is justifying himself by saying that he is giving the more abundant life. . . ."

Notable Nativities—Mahai, b. 1922, ex-king, present crown prince of Rumania. . . . Frank P. Walsh, b. 1864, eminent national lawyer identified with liberal causes. Errett Lobban Cord, b. 1894, auto, airplane and ship builder. He moves his family to England to protect his children from kidnappers.

Today's Yesterdays—July 20, 1934.—Francesco Petrarca was born in Arezzo, Italy, destined to be made immortal by poems inspired by his unrequited passion for Laura, who had been the wife of Hugo de Sade for two years when Petrarch first met her. She died, exemplary mother of 11 children, 21 years later.

July 20, 1577.—The Christian Gospel was first preached in America, at Newfoundland, on this date, it is recorded in Richard Hakluyt's classic Divers Voyages Touching the Discovery of America.

The worshippers were men from among the fleets of 100 Spanish, 50 Portuguese, 150 French and 15 English fishing vessels at the Grand Banks.

July 20, 1847.—The first electric locomotive in the U. S. was demonstrated 30 years before Edison's electric light and 35 years before the electric street car. Moses Gershis Farmer, 27-year-old, Boscowen, N. H., school teacher, was the builder. He used batteries for propulsion. Persons in Dover, N. H., were the first to be transported with it. Because of lack of interest and shortage of funds Farmer's invention never got beyond the demonstration stage. Other Farmer inventions went further, and in the eighties he was a more famous electrical experimenter than Edison.

THE WAY OF BENNETT
Harry Alloway has been a New York newspaperman a long time and consequently can remember the foibles of many New Yorkers of the past.

James Gordon Bennett, managed the New York Herald from Paris; seldom was he in New York. He changed the resident managing editor or often, but always there was a reason. Alloway tells how Henry Darnell received such a "suit of blue" commission from Bennett. It seems that Henry Darnell, who had been a boy in the mines of Montana, a newspaper reporter on the coast, a New York Herald correspondent from London, fell in the disregard of Senator William A. Clark, who resented the happy-go-lucky pungenities that Darnell cabled his paper. Attorneys for Verde's Millionaire finally served papers, demanding satisfaction from James Gordon Bennett for his Paris and New York Herald. Not enrichment, but vindication was what Darnell asked, merely nominal money damages being called for. Some such trifle as $100,000. Bennett was irked. Actually he had been interrupted as he dined, he summoned the source of his annoyance. "You think you are smart!" he fustigated. "Yes, sir!" confirmed Darnell, unabashed. "This fellow from Butte doesn't think so."

"Oh, yes, he does."

"Then he is foolisher even than you have described him. The pair of you seem to be trying to nag me out of the publishing business. Young man, my guess is it can't be done."

"To bad!" sallied the libel originator. "I am just as disappointed."

Rev. Stump To Deliver Park Sermon

Pastor Of St. Paul's Lutheran Church In Charge Of Union Church Service

Rev. A. M. Stump, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, will deliver the sermon on Sunday evening at the regular outdoor union church service in Cascade Park.

This service, sponsored by the Ministerial Association, will be conducted at the bandstand if the weather is fair, but in the event of rain it will take place in St. Paul's Lutheran church, corner of North Jefferson and Grant streets.

Rev. Stump is to be assisted by other ministers and the music will be furnished by the choir of St. John's Lutheran church, which will be the regular outdoor union church service in Cascade Park. The service, sponsored by the Ministerial Association, will be conducted at the bandstand if the weather is fair, but in the event of rain it will take place in St. Paul's Lutheran church, corner of North Jefferson and Grant streets.

Ushers of St. Paul's church will lend their services.

Make Arrest In Westwood Case

Developments Are Expected In Baffling Murder Mystery Soon

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, July 20.—Developments in the baffling murder of Mrs. Martha Westwood, wife of a McKees Rocks justice of the peace, were expected to be rapid today following the arrest of one man. Some time after Patsy Valicenti, 42, was arrested late yesterday at Montour Junction and grilled. District Attorney Andrew T. Park and a squad of detectives left hurriedly on a secret mission for an untried graduate of the Salvation Army's college in New York City. Officers in charge, Captain George Bevan and Lieutenant Alex Nicol.

From all appearances, however, it looked as if new clues were uncovered to give life to the investigation that had reached the lagging stage. Earlier detectives had insisted they stuck to the theory that a paid killer fired the fatal shots into Mrs. Westwood as she slept in her McKees Rocks apartment while her husband, James J. and several friends accompanied "party girls" to a suburban night club. Valicenti, who detectives said was a close friend of Westwood, was detained over night. A .38 calibre revolver, the same size gun used in killing Mrs. Westwood, was found in his home.

Clint Brown Not Through

Cleveland Pitcher Laughs At Reports He Is Going "Blind," Will Pitch Again

(International News Service) CLEVELAND, O., July 20.—Laughing at reports that he was through in baseball due to an eye injury, Clint Brown, veteran right-handed pitcher of the Cleveland Indians, said today he has hopes of rejoining the club before the season is over.

After an examination, Dr. Paul G. Moore revealed that the pitcher was getting along fine and that it was just a matter of time before the spot on his right eye would clear up and that his left eye was perfectly normal.

It was first reported that the Black Sox, player had lost the sight of his right eye and would probably lose the sight of the other. He was injured when a fan tossed a lighted firecracker in front of him while he was sitting on the player's bench in Cleveland shortly before July 4.

Two Services At New Tabernacle

There will be two services tomorrow in the Mahoningtown Gospel Tabernacle, located at Cedar and Clayton streets in the Seventh Ward.

In the afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Reed Walker, pastor of the Valley Way Mission will be the preacher. In the evening at 8 o'clock, Everett Downing, of the local Nazarene church, will preach. Mr. Downing recently conducted a short revival in his home church and this fall will leave the city to prepare for the ministry.

CHILDREN OF HOME HAVE LAKEWOOD SWIM

Youngsters of the Margaret L. Henry Home spent Wednesday at Lakewood as the guests of John Rung. They enjoyed swimming in the afternoon and boating in the evening. Roy Hughes donated his boat. Transportation was furnished through the courtesy of J. M. Smeal who offered two buses and Bernard Hanlon, of the A. A. A.

new Zion, arrived at the site of what was to become their capital, Salt Lake City.

Jim Bridger, famed frontiersman, who was their guide, advised against their choice of this as their home and urged them to continue on to California. He offered to bet $1,000 a bushel of corn couldn't be raised in the region! Now, of course, it is one of the most highly productive agricultural areas.

July 21, 1861—The Battle of Bull Run was fought, and Confederates could have captured Washington! Federal troops led by Gen. Irwin McDowell fled from the field, abandoning arms, munitions and baggage. Washington was left unprotected, and had Confederate Generals A. S. Johnson and P. T. Beauregard taken advantage of their opportunity immediately, they undoubtedly could have seized the national capital.

July 21, 1918—The United States was shelled by German guns! As the U-boat attacked the ship Perth Amboy off Cape Cod, some of the shells from her deck gun fell in Nanset beach.

Writing Wrongs—You're guessing wrong if you believe—"That the distance between earth and moon remains constant. It doesn't. The attraction between the two, with the moon steadily pulling upward on that section of earth facing it, brings earth nearer and causes a variation in distance between the two as much as 63 feet. It was determined from discrepancies in astronomically checked time signals between certain points on earth's surface, too. If you want something to worry about, this will eventually bring the moon crashing down on earth."

as old man Clark. Look at this!"—and a cable despatch spread out for Bennett scanning. Signed to it was the name of a famous American detective—the same whose English representative had just served the libel suit papers; and what it said was:

"Will your boss take $2,000,000 spot cash—or what—for his paper, just as is? There is a sweet commission and any job on the sheet you choose if you put the deal over right away. My principal's name I send by separate cable."

Robert Pinkerton? "Separate cable," comprised three letters: W. A. C.

Said James Gordon Bennett, with the quizzical look he practiced so well, "I suppose you have picked out your job on the sheet. Confidentially, what is it?"

"Oh, quite a change from my present one—a new department—teaching sunshine manners to the payroll."

"Well, you lose that commission. You irritate me. I can't stand seeing your job on the sheet. Take tomorrow morning's steamer for New York. I double your salary—you're only fit to be a Herald Managing Editor!"

District Attorney Mont L. Alley writes to Attorney LeRoy Donaldson that he attended sessions of the American Bar Association at Los Angeles, Cal. He reports that his brother, Attorney Clyde V. Alley, is considerably improved and is able to attend the convention.

In an opinion handed down by Judge James A. Chambers, a new trial is refused M. A. Newton of Ellwood City, who was convicted of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. Newton asked for a new trial on the grounds that the verdict was against the weight of the evidence. Objection was also made to the testimony of some of the witnesses whom Newton did not believe should have been allowed to testify.

In the case of Andy Rotunno against Erskine and Schraum, Judge R. L. Hildebrand has handed down an opinion in which he refuses the defendant a new trial. The case was one in which Rotunno had contracted to do some work in the Hillsville quarries and blamed the defendants for not allowing him to complete the work. The defendants alleged that Rotunno had not carried out his part of the agreement. The verdict was in favor of the defendants and Rotunno asked for a new trial.

Returns of the registering assessors indicate that there are very few Socialists, Independents and Prohibitionists in the different boroughs and townships of the county, while a small number have registered, "no party" Scott township, with 55 Prohibitionists, is still one of the strongholds of that party. Of the 55 voters, 14 are men and 41 women. Ellwood City shows very few voters outside of the Republicans and Democrats, with the former greatly in the majority. In most of the districts there are only four or five voters belonging to any of the parties, other than the Republican or Democratic.

In the case of Stanley Sugenavich against the Washington Mutual Fire Insurance Company in which a verdict for $1400 was returned in favor of the plaintiff, Judge R. L. Hildebrand has handed down an opinion in which a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is refused the defendant, but a new trial is granted. The Washington Mutual contested the case on the grounds that Sugenavich had not complied with the requirements in filing out the application for insurance, representing that he was sole owner, whereas he was buying an article of destroyed by fire on an article of destroyed.

There are no foreign born voters in North Beaver township, second district, according to the returns of the registering assessor to the county commissioners office. This is one of the few districts of the county where the foreign born register zero. The foreign born are found mostly in the townships contiguous to the City of New Castle, Ellwood City, and Hillsville district. In the second ward of Ellwood there are 265, of whom 180 are men and 85 women. Ellwood, third ward, there are 152, of whom 101 are men and 51 women. Ellwood, fourth ward, first there are 72 and in the second predict 122. Shenango township, third district which takes in Clifton Flat, there are 89 foreign born voters, 53 men and 36 women. Hickory township first has 28, and Mahoning third, 89.

In the case of The Federal Land Bank against Harry E. Hogg, Judge James A. Chambers has handed down an opinion, on exceptions to the sheriff's schedule of distribution of the proceeds of a sheriff sale. The sheriff's schedule showed $881.33 coming to County Treasurer Pitts for back taxes from 1930 to 1933, and $97.02 to W. H. Gilmore, tax collector of North Beaver township. The schedule was made out previous to the court's interpretation of the new act of assembly which provides that back taxes can be paid, less the interest and penalties. The court holds that these can be remitted from tax claims. The taxes for 1934 and 1935 can be paid at face, and the sheriff is directed to make out a new schedule of distribution taking into account these facts.

Monday morning the reserve officers of the 393rd Regiment relieved those of the 394th who were in charge the first two weeks. Routine was interrupted on Friday while the whole regiment marched in front of movie cameras.

Saturday July 27th, is parents day, when all relatives and friends are invited to visit the camp. Awards will be made to the individuals who have earned them at this time. This is the biggest event during the latter part of the camp period.

Woman Aged 105, Dies Near Media

(International News Service) MEDIA, Pa., July 20—Mrs. Lydia Ann Baker, 105, one of the oldest women in Pennsylvania, is dead today at her home near here. Mrs. Baker, who retained an interest in current events until her health failed a year ago, deplored prohibition and attributed much of present day crime to its influence. On her 104th birthday, she urged establishment of a whipping post for criminals and offered to wield the cat-o-nine-tails herself. Her death was due to general weakness of old age.

When Oklahoma was admitted to the union in 1907, it possessed a population twice as great as that of any other state at date of admission. Cats are rare in Egypt and Barbary.

First Baptist Picnic Outing At Park Friday

Annual Picnic Of Sunday School Turns Out To Be Huge Success

The First Baptist Sunday school picnic held at Cascade park Friday, will long be remembered by those taking part as an event that was orderly, entertaining, spiritual and fruitful.

D. S. Williams as a committee of one on "Special Entertainment" goes to the head of the class as a groom and for doing the right thing at the right time. Sunday school superintendent Paul Weller with his general chairman Ralph Hay and the men committee composed of Mrs. J. A. Porter, Mrs. J. M. Young and Mrs. Fred Howland deserve appreciation for the delightful menu—yum, yum.

Mrs. Nettie Johnson's class—the table committee, was on its toes and in the setting of the tables and serving and the many duties they performed everything went along according to schedule.

The sports committee, namely Thomas Arthrell, Harvey Glitch, Paul Fombelle and Joe Weller had their hands full as it directed the various races, stunts and unique devices for the entertainment of all. Taking five clothes pins put on a clothes line by a team of ladies was the almost impossible task of the men when it has to be done with the mouth, with the hands clasped behind, its no cinch. Pastor C. H. Heaton was observed by the writer struggling heroically and valiantly to win this event but youth must be served—Kimmel Barber won by a clothes pin.

The husband calling contest won by Mrs. Hilda Patterson furnished hilarious amusement—words fail in trying to picture this for you. Use your imagination.

A live baby chicken was awarded to William Harris for guessing the number of beans in a jar. There were 636 beans; Harris guessed 639.

At 6:30 p. m. dinner was served. D. S. Williams led in singing "Bless Be The Tie That Binds." Pastor Heaton gave thanks after which everyone proceeded to put away the good things. The day was marked by the sweet fellowship and communion enjoyed by the large happy family of the church. After dinner more sports—then the song fest in the grove, with D. S. Williams leading and Mrs. S. J. Callahan at the organ an hour of singing spiritual choruses and the old hymns was enjoyed by young and old bringing to a close a most enjoyable occasion.

SENATOR LONG TO FORCE TEST

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, July 20.—Striking directly at President Roosevelt, Senator Long (D) of Louisiana, said today the state of Louisiana will seek a supreme court test of the federal government's right to appoint administrators of $4,000,000,000 of public work and $800,000,000 of relief funds in states.

Inviting the 47 other states to join him, Long said the suit will be instituted in October, carrying out his contention that control of public works should be vested in states alone.

SCOUTS END STAY AT CAMP PHILLIPS

Troop Camping Closes Today; Many Win Awards For Showing In Tests

(Special To The News) CAMP JOHN M. PHILLIPS, July 20.—Camp Phillips closed for the season today after a week of successful "troop camping" participated in by over 100 scouts.

Friday at Camp Phillips was a busy day, with some boys in every troop winning some form of award after a long period of instruction and tests. The program was culminated by a Court of Reviews conducted by Dr. R. C. Lutz.

The following boys were awarded the second class scout emblems: James Johnson, William Johnson, Charles Pherson, Berton Miles, John Koch, Charles Kerestey, Mike Zalan and Ed Calahan. First class scouts: Paul Chambers, John Davis and Dean Eppinger. Life scouts: Samuel Davey and Oliver Kerr.

Merit badge awards: Hunt Davis was awarded badges in cooking, camping, handicraft and bird study. Ted Sproul, basketball; Chalmers Sproul, basketball; Eldred Urey, safety, basketball, life saving, bird study, machinery and camping; Dick Stevenson, basketball and pioneering; Bob Mort, personal health; Harold Reese, personal health, handicraft and basketball; Wilbur Sloan, personal health.

Merit badges were also awarded to the following scout leaders: Chas. A. Billotte, leather work, forestry and marksmanship; Harry Miles, camping, and E. D. Hawk, plumbing and life saving.

Too much credit cannot be given to the boys who acted as subjects in the conduct of the life saving tests. Hours were spent in the water by these individuals, giving the life savers opportunities to go through their repertoire of tests. The subjects included Bill Batten, Val Kish, Dick Stevenson, Hunt Davis and Richard Herman. The latter, member of camp staff, was the sole subject for all of the junior tests and for some of the seniors. It is now exactly midnight and in spite of the gruelling work that he went through he is just as chipper as ever and waist deep in some camp clerical work. In addition he has been acting as scoutmaster for New Bedford 1, Walmo 1 and V-55.

Being the last day of camp the boys patronized the trading post in large numbers. James Bowman, the efficient storekeeper (scoutmaster of V-15), reported a good business.

The period has definitely proved that "troop camping" can only be successful when conducted by willing and well-trained leaders. The routine work done by these men and boys is almost endless, ranging from clerical work to the arranging and preparing of well-balanced menus. A number of them traveled between camp and their business places, working all day and carrying on with their camp work far into the night. The palm for honorable service goes to the following leaders: Harry Miles, Dr. R. C. Lutz, C. A. Billotte, George Winter, Eyril McCarty, Howard Baez, Jack Court, James Bowman, Richard Herman and Richard Morgan.

Strickler Candidate For Prothonotary

Announces Candidacy For Republican Nomination For County Office

(International News Service) CAMDEN, N. J., July 20.—Leaders of 4,600 strikers of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation today denied company reports the plant will reopen under a temporary truce Tuesday, thus ending the 10-week walkout.

"We wish to instruct all men that the yard will not resume operations on Tuesday or any other day until the company has signed a contract with this union," declared a statement by the union negotiating committee in reply to an announcement by John F. Metten, president of the yards.

Metten said the company would follow the suggestion of Mayor Frederick Von Nieda to reopen and discard old and proposed agreements with the workers until new wage and working agreements can be formulated.

Tax Policy Bill Shows Progress

President Leaves Matter Of Writing Tax Bill Up To Congress

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Democratic majority on the House Ways and Means committee today reported progress in the drive to reach an accord on a bill designed to carry out President Roosevelt's tax policy.

Foreseeing a battle ahead on the tax program, leaders on the committee hoped to be able to present a united front when they bring a measure to the House floor.

Strong differences of opinion were encountered immediately after the Democratic members in secret conferences began to consider questions of policy.

Up To Congress

Although President Roosevelt announced he was leaving the business of writing a tax bill to Congress, the White House is known to have been informed of the attitude of Democratic members.

On the basis of committee discussions, including sessions attended by Republicans, the tax bill probably will sharply modify the program laid down by President Roosevelt in his message to Congress.

A tax program favored by many members of the committee included: Increase on individual incomes of $150,000 and up, estimated to raise $20,400,000 a year. Taxes would range from 58 to 75 per cent.

Inheritance taxes ranging from four per cent on amounts over $50,000 to 75 per cent on the largest estates, estimated to raise $93,200,000 a year.

Excess Profits

Excess profits taxes on corporations designed to produce $100,000,000 a year, ranging from 5 percent of profits over 8 percent to 20 percent of profits over 30 percent.

Possible inclusion of tax on inter-corporation dividends estimated to raise $3,700,000 a year.

The total amount under such a program would be $233,000,000,000 a year.

Shipbuilders Not To Return To Jobs

(International News Service) CAMDEN, N. J., July 20.—Leaders of 4,600 strikers of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation today denied company reports the plant will reopen under a temporary truce Tuesday, thus ending the 10-week walkout.

"We wish to instruct all men that the yard will not resume operations on Tuesday or any other day until the company has signed a contract with this union," declared a statement by the union negotiating committee in reply to an announcement by John F. Metten, president of the yards.

Metten said the company would follow the suggestion of Mayor Frederick Von Nieda to reopen and discard old and proposed agreements with the workers until new wage and working agreements can be formulated.

State Police Are Ordered To Probe Telegram Case

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, July 20.—Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti today ordered the state police to make "a complete, thorough and most searching" investigation of disclosures in the U. S. senate that hundreds of allegedly forged telegrams against the Wheeler-Rayburn anti-holding company bill were sent from Erie and Warren counties.

"Every effort will be made to bring to justice and mete out punishment to those who are responsible for their serious crime," Margiotti announced.

Margiotti said L. G. Eddy, district attorney of Warren county, and Mortimer Graham, Erie prosecutor, will head the investigation and a deputy attorney general will be sent to their aid if necessary. State police will cooperate by making the investigation.

Education Costs Will Be Surveyed

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, July 20.—Governor George H. Earle today paved the way for an investigation of the cost of education in Pennsylvania by signing a bill creating a joint legislative committee which will make its report to the next session of the legislature.

The committee will be comprised of five members each from House and Senate. An appropriation of $10,000 was provided. The House members have already been named. Representative H. G. Andrews, Cambria, is chairman.

The governor signed three other bills and vetoed four. Seventy-seven measures, including a series of appropriation bills, still remain before him for action and must be either

Past Presidents Are Entertained

Mrs. Taylor Is Hostess To Members Of Past President's Club

Mrs. Alice Taylor was a charming hostess to members of the Past Presidents club, when they gathered at her home Thursday for a 1 o'clock luncheon.

Places were laid for 11 at a table attractively decorated by a centerpiece of garden flowers.

A short business meeting followed Mrs. Florence Solomon, past president, was presented with a pin as a gift of the club. The new officers are as follows:

President—Mrs. Alice Taylor.
Vice-president—Mrs. Jane Campbell.

Secretary—Mrs. Frances Johnson.
Treasurer—Mrs. Pearl Taylor.

Plans were made for a breakfast to be held at Cascade park on Tuesday, July 23 at 8:30 o'clock.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent at bingo, prizes going to Mrs. Grace Sapper, Mrs. Pearl Taylor, Billy Campbell and Mrs. Alice Taylor.

Special guests of the afternoon were—Mrs. Harriet Watson, Dorothy Hackett, Elizabeth Taylor and Billy Campbell.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Taylor on Highland avenue.

PICNIC EVENT

With final plans completed, several hundred persons will converge at Cascade Park, Sunday, where the St. Margaret M. B. Society, of 201 South Liberty street, will celebrate its twenty-first anniversary, with a picnic.

President Joseph Pecoraro and his committee have arranged a most enjoyable program for the day.

The picnicers will depart from the society headquarters, Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock, to spend the remainder of the day at Cascade. Special services in the St. Lucy church, this morning, by the Rev. Fr. Sebastian Ippolito, were conducted in conjunction with the occasion.

Trees being destroyed.

The Mahoningtown Garden club wishes to call the attention of the citizens of the Seventh ward to the fact that trees planted in the park are being willfully destroyed.

Owen P. Fox, city forester informs the club that this act of vandalism carries a heavy state fine for anyone caught in the act.

Will the citizens of this ward show their appreciation of the work that has been done to make this a pleasing spot, by notifying the police should they detect anyone in the act of violating this law.

Signed,
Mahoningtown Garden Club.

LAWN SOCIAL WELL ATTENDED

The weatherman smiled favorably on the lawn social given Thursday evening at the Mahoning Presbyterian church.

The setting was lovely with colored lights and the tables attractively decorated with summer flowers were set on the church lawn. Music was furnished by the Mahoning string orchestra.

The arrangements were made by the Opportunity circle.

"Double-Crossing" Charges Hurlled By Florence Goodrich

Wife Of Merton Goodrich Says She Was No Accessory To Girl's Death

(International News Service)

DETROIT, July 20.—Mrs. Florence Goodrich, former Ohio farm girl and wife of Merton W. Goodrich, madcap killer who was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Lillian Gallagher, 11, today charged she was "double-crossed" by authorities when she was accused of being an accessory in the crime.

Mrs. Goodrich, a cripple, was arrested yesterday on the charges, pleaded not guilty and was held for examination next Wednesday. Her arraignment followed by four hours the dramatic guilty plea of her mate to first degree murder charges. His admission of guilt halted his two day trial.

Goodrich probably will be taken to Marquette prison Monday.

Contract Awarded Castle Stationery

Local Firm Will Furnish Supplies Needed For New Registration Of Voters

County commissioners this morning awarded the contract for furnishing permanent registration supplies required by the new act to the Castle Stationery Company of this city at their bid of $1,355.47 being the lowest bid complying with the specifications.

The supplies to be furnished include 34 visible district register prong shift binders, lettered on sides and back in gold.

Thirty-four A-Z celluloid tab indexes for above binders.

Twenty-one visible master register prong shift binders, lettered on sides and back.

One 500 sub-divided index for master binder, celluloid tabs.

Twenty-one street list binders, lettered on sides and back.

One minute or record book for proceedings.

Also master registration cards and ledger, precinct registration cards and ledger, and street list record sheets.

New Applications For Works Relief

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 20.—State and district staffs of the Works Progress Administration were under orders today from Edward N. Jones, Pennsylvania administrator, speedily to prepare new applications for taking over the 671 works relief projects suspended by the state emergency-relief board, throwing 30,000 persons out of work.

Jones said he expected all the applications to be submitted to him by the end of next week.

"We will rush them through to Washington and request authorities there to expedite them and treat them as emergency projects," he said. "As soon as Washington gives its approval the work can be resumed."

Strike May Force Plant Shutdown

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 20.—Complete shutdown of the Quincentum Glass Factory at Fairchance loomed today on the heels of the strike of 250 machine men of the plant over a wage increase dispute.

The strikers are demanding a five percent increase in pay, retroactive to May despite reported promise of the operators to make the boost.

August 1. Sufficient orders are on file to keep the factory working steadily indefinitely, but with picketing underway, suspension of operations appeared probable.

DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS

HARRISBURG, July 20.—Headquarters of District No. 11 of the Works Progress Administration, comprising Somerset, Bedford, Blair and Cambria counties, will be located at Somerset, according to an announcement today by Edward N. Jones, state administrator.

Altoona presented a strong bid for the office and both cities offered free space for the headquarters, Jones said. Much of the agitation in Altoona resulted from a "mis-understanding" that all relief activities there would be suspended with the establishment of district offices in Somerset, according to Jones.

Fighting Two Religions.

Do Bootleggers Pray?

A Flying Family.

Enlisting In Harlem.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

FOLLOWING SAVAGE and cowardly attacks on Jews in Berlin men and women beaten indiscriminately, the Nazi attitude toward Catholics becomes more bitterly hostile. Prussia's president, General Goering complains that some Catholics greet each other with the salutation, "Hail, Jesus Christ," instead of using the Nazi formula, "Heil, Hitler."

General Goering says: "We will not tolerate reappearance of aspirations formerly entertained by the Catholic Center Party."

Denouncing priests of the Catholic church, he says: "We will fight them even more energetically under their lying and hypocritical disguises."

General Goering and his Nazi associates will find that fighting two religions at once shows lack of caution and wisdom and brutal treatment of minorities does not pay.

IF BOOTLEGGERS ever pray, which is doubtful, they are on their knees now, praying that Congress may pass a bill allowing distribution and sale of alcoholic drinks "in bulk." This would enable bootleggers to employ the legal "bulk" package to refill it with bootleg liquor, for retailing and repeat as often as might be desired.

The public has some protection against poisonous bootleg, when it knows the bottle from which it is poured and knows the man that sells it. But with "bulk" distribution protection against bootleggers would vanish and bootlegging would be here forever.

WHEN LANGLEY was showing how flying could be done, before nobody could fly, it seemed preposterous for a newspaper man, at a dinner given by John Brisson Walker, to predict that within his lifetime men would fly over both oceans.

Today flying is youth's favorite "sport." Three days ago, a new Stinson plane left the Newark Airport headed for Denver, Col., arriving seven hours later, stopping at Chicago on the way.

A young man of twenty-two Bruce A. Gimble, Yale, 1935, was the pilot. The passengers were his mother and his sister, Hope Gimble.

A few years more and such expeditions, with son or daughter piloting the rest of the family from ocean to ocean, or across the Atlantic, will be as much a matter of course as son or daughter piloting the family automobile today. Wonderful youth!

IN HARLEM upper part of New York City, inhabited by 300,000 colored men and women, fifteen hundred of the United States, and barefooted fighting in Ethiopia, in company of lions, rhinoceroses, crocodiles, tse-tse flies, and wild tribesmen that eat raw hippopotamus meat, could not possibly be pleasant.

In spite of warnings, the "African Esquadrille" is said to have many members.

IP ITALIAN mothers, their sons sent to Abyssinia, believe all they read, they must worry. You heard that Abyssinian wild doctors would leave bottles filled with tse-tse flies near Italian troops, the sun would melt the stoppers of the bottles, the flies angry at detention, would bite the Italians and they would die of "sleeping sickness."

Also, those witch doctors would first curse the springs and wells, then poison them for the benefit of Italians. Such things seemed sufficient to justify "poison gas for Abyssinia in large doses."

AND THAT is only part of it, according to the Associated Press, which cables from Istanbul. "Constantinople to most of us, about Ethiopia's Galla tribesmen, most savage of Ethiopian fighters, real savages. They tame lions, teach them to attack the enemy, as in the days of St. Patrick, fierce, enormous Irish wolf hounds, were trained to fight, huddling themselves against infantry."

The Gallas, using lions, will make young Italian soldiers think they are back in the old Roman forum. The Gallas are no mollycoddles their favorite diet is "raw hippopotamus meat."

BECAUSE HE DESCENDS from King Solomon, the Ethiopian Emperor is called the "Conquering Lion of Judah."

Think of young Italians starting out across the Abyssinian plains singing, "O Bella Napoli" and suddenly seeing a row of lions, half a mile long, dashing after them.

Tse-tse flies, poisoned springs, lions! What else? Perhaps three-horned rhinoceroses and crocodiles. They have them in Ethiopia.

By the way, you may see photographs of Mussolini playing with lions, not quite full-grown, but big. Italians, you observe are always going something new.

Last Wednesday Italy recaptured the world's non-stop seaplane flight record. An Italian civilian, Mario Stoppini and two officers with one 750 horse-power engine, flew 3,086 miles from Italy to British Somaliland, beating the world's record held by a Frenchman by 33 miles an hour average.

JOAN WARNER, young American whose dancing in costume shocked Paris, is fined three dollars and thirty three cents. The judge said if she had been "entirely nude" he would have fined her twenty-five dollars.

"But the defendant wears a small veil as a fig leaf and also employs a balloon. Therefore only three dollars and thirty-three cents."

Three dollars and thirty three cents was cheap: the young lady got at least $33,000 worth of free advertising and here she gets a little more.

ABYSSINIA asks England not to let Italian planes fly over Egyptian territory, on the way to Abyssinia. An embarrassing request, since England as a member of the league is supposed to oppose attack on Abyssinia, another member of the league. But when one side is white, the other black that makes a difference. In addition, as Lloyd George has said, the league is really dead.

DEAR LITTLE American girls that entertain restaurant crowds in London, dining first on one foot, then on the other, bending over backward, bounding toward the sky etc., have been told to go home. Britain's Labor Department, with its slogan, "Buy British" says little British girls also have two feet, can dance nicely, bend over as far as anybody and need British jobs.

Nancy Lyon, one of a group of California girls "platinum" and beautiful, said she would almost marry an Englishman, in order to stay. She made the "almost" emphatic.

Lincoln-Garfield Picnic At Lakewood Sunday To Be Mammoth Affair

With the present good weather prevailing Sunday, July 21, the annual mid-summer picnic of the Lincoln-Garfield club at Lakewood Beach promises to be an unusual success. Committees report today that the attendance will exceed that of last year and the day promises to be one of interest and pleasure.

Visitors are arriving today prepared to renew old acquaintances tomorrow at the beach and Lakewood should see a crowd tomorrow. A lengthy list of sports has been prepared, and an unusual number of prizes are ready for distribution to the sport competitors and to those upon whom fortune will smile.

The picnic is sponsored by the Lincoln-Garfield club which numbers among its members those students who attended the school between 1900 and 1911. However all former students are invited to attend the picnic.

Busses will leave the Lincoln-Garfield school at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and will stop at Croton school on the way out. William E. Trick is the general chairman of the picnic and has the programs of the day in shape.

Lehigh Employees To Picnic July 27

Employees of the Lehigh Portland Cement company are preparing for a picnic which will be held at Neshaunock Falls park on Saturday, July 27. Ray Cutler has been named general chairman of the picnic and announced today that cars will leave the cement plant at 9 o'clock on the morning of the picnic.

A program of races and sports of various kinds has been prepared with plenty of prizes for competitors. Free swimming and dancing have been arranged with an old fashioned prize waltz featuring the entertainment.

The committee in charge of the affair follows: Ray Cutler, general chairman; Bert Miller, Herbert Saxton, Frank Barley, Pace, William Murdoch, Roger Pantano, Sam Cutler, Henry Wilson, Clarence Shuler, Frank Graziani, Roy Campbell, Chuck Rich and August Windish.

After the first ten or twelve weeks, both mash and grain should be available at all times to pullets.

Night Baseball In Big Leagues Gaining Favor

Baseball Clubs with Fast
Dwindling Gate Receipts
Will Turn To Night
Baseball

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports
Editor

NEW YORK, July 20.—Night baseball, at the moment an exclusive and highly remunerative side line of the Cincinnati ball club, probably will be pretty general throughout the major leagues next year or at least not later than 1937, the writer is authoritatively informed today. It may even confront the next meeting of the American League, which disclaimed it so utterly last winter, with the Chicago White Sox probably prosecuting the issue.

If they do, they are likely to seek and obtain the support of the St. Louis Browns, who in their extremity are prepared to welcome anything except a visit from the corner. I also understand that indiscreet inquiries have been vouchsafed by the Boston Red Sox, indicating no worse than a strong minority vote when and if the question comes before the American League.

Very Remunerative
As for the National, the report is that the Reds are to be followed into their nocturnal endeavors next season by maybe as many as four outfits, namely, the St. Louis Cardinals, the Chicago Cubs, the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Phillies. This would leave only three die-hards, the New York Giants, the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Boston Braves, with more than a possibility that the latter might join the left-wing movement after they are sold to one of three interested parties on August 1.

Anyhow, the seven-game night baseball schedule is a roaring success with the Cincinnati club and incidentally with the league president, Ford C. Frick, who has just completed a swing through the circuit.

Here To Stay
"Night baseball," he said this morning, "is here to stay. It has been very successful in Cincinnati, not only from a playing standpoint but in the box office. You can't get away from those attendance figures."

You see, on the seven-game basis, night crowds do not affect the attendance. The former is a different crowd. It features the family aspect, with mother, brother, father and sister sitting together. They drive into town from the outlying districts of the town after work and make a night of it. They cannot get on Sundays, so previously we saw little of them."

Tickets For Game
On Sale Tonight
Tickets for the benefit baseball game for the family of the late Stanley McCullough will be on sale starting tonight at the Sporting Goods store, it was announced. The benefit game will be played next Thursday, at Centennial Field. The original benefit game for Thursday of this week was postponed.

Mangrum Leads St. Paul Open

Mangrum Turns In Brilliant 67
Score Despite Terrific Heat At St. Paul

(International News Service)
ST. PAUL, Minn., July 20.—Ray Mangrum, Los Angeles pro, held a one stroke first round lead, as the field set out on the second round of the $5000 St. Paul open golf tournament today.

A boiling sun failed to deter the Los Angeles star, and he turned in a brilliant 67, five under par. Scores were aided by the lightning fastness of the greens. An even dozen of the 165 starters bettered par, right behind Mangrum came Harry Cooper and Frank Walsh, both of Chicago, and Bill Kaiser of Louisville, Ky. who turned in 68's.

Ky Lafoon, Chicago, posted a 69, while Henry Picard, Hershey, Pa., Bunny Torrey, Kansas City, Pat Sawyer, Minneapolis amateur, and Gene Kunes, Philadelphia, carded 70's.

The other four par-breakers were Joe Brown, Des Moines, and Tommy Armour, Horton Smith and Eddie Loos, all of Chicago, with 71's. Seisui Chinn, Jack Yasuda and Toichiro Toda, Japanese professionals shot 73's as did Johnny Revolta of Milwaukee, the defending champion, and Sam Parks, Jr., of Pittsburgh the national open champion.

Enter Public Links Tourney

Three From New Castle Course Will Compete In National Event At Indianapolis

For the second successive year, New Castle will be represented in the National Public Links Tournament, which will take place on the Charles E. Coffin Course, Indianapolis, from July 29 to August 3.

The New Castle entries, are Jimmy Smith, son of Capt. V. Arthur Smith, manager and pro at the New Castle Myny Course, Willie Grommes and Izzy Solomon. They will leave New Castle Wednesday for the Indianapolis course, and will spend a few days, playing over the course to get acquainted with its topography.

Last year, New Castle sent four entries to the tournament, which was played at the South Hills course in Pittsburgh, but the local entries fell by the wayside after shooting a spectacular game in the practice round.

Soft Ball Notes

GARFIELD A. C. WINS
Garfield A. C. topped the Lincoln Juniors 12-9 in a game at the South Side field.

YOUNG CARDS WIN
The Young Cards defeated the Gaston Midgets 12 to 5 yesterday at Gaston Park. The Young Cards also defeated the Little Pirates recently for their fourth straight victory of the year.

MECHANICALS WIN GAME
The Mechanicals of the Tin Mill league handed the Jones team a 4 to 3 defeat last night at Rosena Furnace field. Ludwig had the pitching job for the Jones team and was found for six hits, with Jones team having 11 hits off of Patton.

Gresham Enters Hall Of Fame By No-Hit Soft Ball

Howard "Howdy" Gresham
Lets Davis Team Down
Hitless And Runless In
1-0 Victory

Howard "Howdy" Gresham entered the hall of fame of New Castle and national soft ball last night at Lehigh field when he let the Davis Shoes team down without a hit or run in nine innings and the Saks won the league game 1 to 0 in one of the finest soft ball games ever played in this city. Gresham fanned 16 batters.

The Saks only had four hits off of Al Ritchie and could get but one run off the former Union hurling ace. The feature hitters for the Saks were Craig with two hits and Henderson and M. Polenick with one hit each. The Saks had but one error back of Gresham. This is the first game that Gresham has pitched for quite some time and has returned to his old time form.

Gresham mowed the Davis boys down as fast as they came to the plate. By winning last night the Saks tied the Davis team with three victories and two defeats apiece. Score by innings: R. H. E. Davis 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 Saks 0 0 0 0 1—1 4 1 Batteries—Saks, Gresham and Shattick; Davis, A. Ritchie and McKee.

Trainer Loses At Williamsport

George M. Trainor Is Defeated
By R. D. Dinsmore
Of Reading

(International News Service)
WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 20.—A 17 year old youth just out of high school at St. Mary's, Pa., continued to set the pace of the Williamsport Club's annual invitation tournament as the meet entered its semi-final round this morning.

Jack D. Phelan, who came from the Elk county town to show a golfing form that made many of the old timers take a back seat, faces a real test in his contest with Johnny Cree of Sunbury, this morning. Cree was runnerup in last year's tourney.

In the other semi-final match, Bill Nacios, of Throop, former Penn State star, faces R. D. Dinsmore, of Reading.

In the quarter finals yesterday Phelan took an early lead and finally turned back Robert Lowry, of Shamokin, one up. Cree defeated Donald Allen, of Pittston, four and three; Nacios turned back Jimmy Hunter, of State College, four and three; and Dinsmore defeated G. M. Trainor of New Castle three to two.

Results in the quarter finals of the consolidation eight yesterday included a defeat, one up, for George P. Simons, of St. Mary's at the hands of James P. Scott, Phillipsburg.

Hurler Sets New Strikeout Record

(International News Service)
A new strikeout record was set up for pitchers in the Pennsylvania state baseball association today following the performance of George Washburn, Washington hurler, who yesterday struck out 12 members of the McKeesport team.

With John McIlwain, Charleroi's 52 year old hurling star, holding Greensburg to two hits in four innings, the Tigers scored a 3 to 0 win over the Greensburg Club. Monessen suffered its fourth consecutive defeat as Butler defeated them by a 12-4 count.

Crusaders Have Excellent Time At Riley Home

Dave Riley, supervisor of the St. Andrews Crusaders, was host last night to the Crusaders Junior soft ball team at his home on Pennsylvania avenue. Some very interesting discussions took place among the boys until a late hour when the host served ice cream, cake and orangeade.

The Crusaders have one of the best teams in the junior league and only yesterday lost to the East Side Merchants in a playoff game 10-9 in 13 innings. They defeated the S. S. Castles in 12 innings on Thursday morning. The Crusaders will meet the Radiator Juniors Monday morning at Gaston park at 10:30 o'clock and will play the Mechanicals of the Tin Mill league Wednesday at Clifton Flats at 6 o'clock.

CROTON TEAMS PLAY
Croton All Star Midgets defeated the Croton Merchants Midgets 12-9, in a game played at Castle Field. Delio featured with a homer. Germani was the winning pitcher.

Legion Of Honor To Play Monday

Expect Large Crowd Will Be Out For Weekly Handicap
Event At Myny Course

With many of the players back from vacations, the Legion of Honor golfers will be out in large numbers Monday evening, for their weekly kicker's handicap event.

Rain interfered considerably with the play last Monday evening, the downpour descending just about the time generally starts, and many of the players did not turn out. Those who were on the course, finished their matches after an intermission.

Unions Will Play Youngstown Champs

An unusual mushball attraction awaits fandon on Sunday afternoon when the Unions take the field against the noted Butchy team. Youngstown champs for the past two years. The contest, according to Business Manager Fred Marcella, will be played on the B. & O. field at 3:00 o'clock.

Frank Babe, Sammy Pezzone, James Barlett or Filer Mateja will be called to hurl against the Ohionians. Centrella, Fine or Sozio will take the mound for the visitors.

RYANTOWN AT HOME SUNDAY

American Sheet And Tin Plate
To Play At Bessemer

West Pittsburg and Ryantown will clash Sunday at Ryantown it was stated today and according to Manager Charles Bishop of the home team he expects the game which is a Booster's proposition to attract one of the largest crowds of the season.

A few weeks ago 1,500 fans gathered at Ryantown and inasmuch as both teams are traditional rivals another big assembly is looked for. L. O. Hill, in charge of the umpires has assigned Irwin and McConaghy to umpire the game. The other Lawrence County league game will be played between A S & T P and Bessemer.

The games scheduled for today will find Mahoning at Carbon and the Alleghippa Grays will oppose Bessemer at Bessemer, in an independent game.

Win Close Match From Grove City

Allen Street Horse Shoe Pitchers Extended Last Evening

Grove City extended the New Castle horse shoe pitchers on the Allen street courts last evening, the New Castle team winning 15 games to their opponents 12.

In total points, the New Castle hurlers topped the visitors by 29 points, the totals being 1078 for New Castle and 1049 for Grove City. New Castle had eight more ringers than their opponents, the number being New Castle 781 and Grove City, 773.

On Sunday afternoon at 1:30, the state champion Erie team will be here for an exhibition match which will be of great interest. This match will be played on the Allen street courts also.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Kelly a three year old trotter with P. A. O'Connell in the sulky won straight heat victories over the field yesterday with ease in the three year old trot at Butler in 2:14. Golden Direct, driven by Goodhart, had no competition in the 2:24 pace, his time being 2:09 1/2. Calumet Dera, with Harry Todd in the sulky won in straight heats in the 2:25 trot in 2:10 1/2 and Hanover The Great with Roth handling the ribbons also won the 2:19 pace, going the first two heats in 2:07 1/4.

Largest crowd ever to see a horse race in Chicago is expected at Arlington Park today in the three-year-old championship race, good for $30,000. Omaha is favored to win but Black Helen is well liked.

Paul Pollard, Lynchburg, Va., advanced in the West Virginia open net meet at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., yesterday when he eliminated Paul Kunkel of Cincinnati. Barney Welsh of Rockville, Md., will play Pollard today for the title.

Eleven-year-old Mary Hoerger, of Miami, is the youngest diver ever to win national championship. She defeated the best women divers of country in New York competition for the low-board title. Here is a closeup of Mary and three of the dives that won the crown for her.

Hole Round With Score
Of 163

S. Derzypolski was medalist for the 36-hole qualifying round played by the Muny Caddies for the right to compete for the Muny Course championship, which will start next Tuesday. He was closely followed by R. Kawa, with a card of 165 and P. Evangelist, with a card of 166. Both Kawa and Evangelist shot much better golf in the round Friday, than the leader, but his score of 77 on Tuesday put him out ahead.

The results of play for the two days were as follows:
Derzypolski, 77-86-163; Kawa, 82-83-165; P. Evangelist, 87-79-166; E. Groomes, 84-83-167; T. Lombardo, 89-80-169; L. Chysak, 88-84-170; J. Kuhl, V. Zuchowski, 87-86-175; D. Munford, 88-87-175; A. GIANTS LOSE
TO CUBS 9-3

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports
Writer

NEW YORK, July 20.—The Major league races are growing hotter than the weather.

Today the Tigers are but half a game back of the Yanks with the White Sox by no means lost in the shuffle. The Cards are only four games behind the Giants and the Cubs are still very much in the picture.

Dodgers Top Cards
The Giants have the Dodgers to thank that the Cards are not closer for it was the daffiness boys, of whom the unexpected must always be expected, who shut out the Cards yesterday, 3-0, and in so doing halted a streak which had run through 14 straight victories.

Johnny Beahm, who until yesterday, had won only three games all year, stunned the natives in St. Louis by letting the home guard down with five scattered hits while his mates got to Bill Walker and Phil Collins for nine.

Schumacher Loses
The Giants led with their ace, Schumacher, but the Cubs trumped him and won, 9-3. Warneke pitched a neat game and Mel Ott's 21st homer off him in the ninth served only to keep Mel well ahead of the rest of the National league round trip artists.

The Pirates built three runs around Arky Vaughan's ninth inning homer to nose out the Braves in a 6-5 slugfest and the Reds, still going strong, shut out the Phils, 3 to 0. Emmett Nelson, a rookie, held the Phils to five hits to score his first Major league whitewash.

The Browns again shocked the Yanks by taking their second straight game, 7 to 0.

Tigers Win
The Tigers outslugged the Red Sox to win, 9 to 7, but had to call on Schooboy Rowe with the bases full in the ninth to save the game.

The White Sox hammered Hayes, Russell and Pettit for 13 hits, including Bonura's 18th homer, to wallop the Senators, 7 to 2. Vernon Kennedy, another freshman, held the Senators to five hits.

Braddock Praises "Bomber" Louis As Great Scrapper

Braddock Stops In Pittsburgh
For Brief Visit On Way Back To New Jersey

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 20.—Praising the ring ability of Joe Louis, Detroit heavyweight, James J. Braddock, recently crowned world heavyweight champion today had expressed the hope he might meet the "Brown Bomber" in his next bout.

"I don't know who my next opponent will be," Braddock said, "but I do hope it is Louis. It's a great break that that fellow bobbed up and I hope he keeps bowling them over until I meet him."

Braddock stopped off in Pittsburgh on his return to New York from a brief exhibition tour.

"I think Joe is a pretty good fighter," Braddock said, "but I want to see more of him before I pass judgment. Right now I want to get back to the wife and kiddies. I've been away from them long enough."

Radiators Trim Tolan Team 18-7

Radiators Score 10 Runs To Eighth Inning To Take
Lopsided Victory

National Radiators last night at the Radiator Field took a 18 to 7 victory over the Tolan A. C. in a New Castle Soft Ball league game, after scoring 10 runs in the eighth inning on a series of errors.

The Tolan led the lead at 6 to 4 over the mighty Rads until the end of the fifth when the Rads turned on the heat and scored four runs. Ten runs in the eighth inning clinched the game for the champions. The heavy hitters were Greene, S. Ross with four hits, S. Lookley, Andy Beres, Robinson and Roberts.

Bonfield started for the Rads and gave way to Andy Beres who finished the game and held the Tolan safe. Herman Morris was in the box for the Tolan.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Tolans 000 001 010—2 7 2
Caps 000 011 000—2 4 0

Batteries: Unions, Bartlett, Babs and Tex Richards; Capitols, R. Pezzone and S. Bullano. Umpires, T. Conti and Bert Evans.

Announce Card For Pro Games

(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O., July 20.—Official schedule of the National Football League was announced here Friday by President Joe P. Carr.

League play will start September 13 with a night game between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. Each of the nine teams in the circuit will play a total of 12 games during the season. Teams represented are Boston, Brooklyn, New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Chicago Bears, Chicago Cardinals, Detroit, and Green Bay. St. Louis forfeited its franchise at the recent league meeting.

CROTON-UNIONS TO PLAY MONDAY

Croton Progressives and the Unions will play at the B. & O. field Monday night in a regular league game, and President Walters has assigned T. Conti and Bert Evans to the game.

The Unions hold two previous victories over Croton, 6 to 2, and 7 to 6, and the Crotons will be out for revenge. Both teams have won four and lost one this half. Rubels the lad who set the Radiators down recently will go to the mound for the Crotons, with Tex Richards probably calling on Babs or Sammy Pezzone.

On Trail of Two Helens

Another Californian, Alice Marble, is bound for Forest Hills to make it certain that the Golden State acquires this year's women's national singles championship. After being out of competition for year, like Helen Wills Moody, due to illness, she expects to stage as big a comeback as Mrs. Moody and give both Helens a tussle for top honors.

Unions-Capitols Play Tie Game 2-2

Rivals Stage Great Game At B.
& O. Field With 1,500 Fans
Looking On

Unions and the Capitols battled last night at the B. & O. field in the feature game on the New Castle Soft Ball program last night and the game ended in the last of the ninth 2-2. The game will be played over next Tuesday night at the B. & O. Field.

Frank Babs saved the day for the Unions by his great relief hurling in the latter innings after relieving "Germany" Bartlett. Rod Pezzone was in the box for the Caps and held the Unions to seven hits. The Capitols had but four hits off of Bartlett and Babs. Bartlett fanned one man, Babs fanned four and Pezzone fanned six. Francis Clause scored both of the runs for the Unions. Marino and DiMuccio made the runs for the Caps. Yerage drove Marino home by doubling in the sixth. Vigal's hit scored Clause in the eighth, and earlier Clause scored when Texie Richards singled.

Had the crowd stayed off the playing field the game might have been finished, but it became too dark to play after considerable bickering at the end of the ninth. Ropes will have to be stretched at the B. & O. Field next Tuesday night for the play-off game.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Unions 000 001 010—2 7 2
Caps 000 011 000—2 4 0

Batteries: Unions, Bartlett, Babs and Tex Richards; Capitols, R. Pezzone and S. Bullano. Umpires, T. Conti and Bert Evans.

Exemptions On Tax Outlined

Agencies Created By Congress
Exempted From Documentary Tax

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 20.—Agencies created by Congress to carry out policies of the federal government are exempted from the new state documentary tax, according to an opinion today by Attorney General Charles J. Margott.

Margott's opinion was written for Secretary of Revenue H. Edgar Barnes, who had inquired as to the application of the act to bonds and notes secured by mortgages and deeds given to federal land banks, the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, federal intermediate credit banks, the central bank for co-operators, production credit corporations, production associations, regional agricultural credit corporations and the governor of the farm credit administration. These agencies were designed to extend financial relief to farmers by federal loans.

S. S. Conference At Hickory Knell

Quarterly Rally Of District 7
Is Held On Friday
Evening

ELLWOOD CITY, July 20.—The quarterly rally of District 7 of Beaver county Sunday school association took place last evening at the Hickory Knell Church of God. There were one hundred and sixty in attendance representing the North Sewickley Presbyterian, Providence Baptist, Concord M. E., Knox Presbyterian, Camp Run U. P. and Hickory Knell churches.

An inspiring song service led by Frank Dunbar of the home church opened the meeting. Mr. Wallace, a former president of the county association gave an address stressing the value of these conferences as a means of awakening interest and responsibility.

Christian Youth Building A New York, was the topic of a fine address given by Rev. K. Miller of West Bridgeview, Rev. Arnold Berg, pastor of Hickory Knell church, gave a splendid talk on the Importance of Teacher Training.

A worthwhile and effective pageant entitled, "Anybody's Sunday Morning" was given by a clever cast from the Christian Endeavor society of the most church directed by Jay McDonald, Mrs. Warren Hessler and Miss Heine Clarke with guitar accompaniment by Warren Hessler, contributed a pleasing duet.

During the business meeting with the president J. R. Clarke, presiding plans were made to hold a memorial service at the next rally to be held on Friday evening, October 18, at the Providence Baptist church. Frank Swick vice president of this district will conduct the services.

Plans were also completed for a young people's rally and picnic to be held for all the interested young people of the county on Friday evening, August 16, at Wise's Grove on the New Brighton road.

The Providence Baptist Sunday school was awarded with a picture for having the highest percentage of average enrollment in attendance.

SHOWER EVENT FOR NEWLY WEDS

ELLWOOD CITY, July 20.—Mrs. W. and Mrs. Paul V. Nye of Jane Lew, W. Va., who are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Nye of North Sewickley, were the victims of a delightful surprise last evening when a group of members of the Providence Baptist church of North Sewickley assembled at the Nye home last evening.

After congratulations and best wishes had been extended by everyone the hours were passed in a pleasant informal manner. At an appropriate hour, a tempting collation was served by members of the B. Y. P. U. of the church.

At this time, Mr. and Mrs. Nye were again surprised when they were presented with an array of very nice and useful gifts and they both responded in a charming manner.

They will leave for their home on Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Nye, who are both students of the Crozier Theological Seminary at Cheshire, Pa., will resume their studies there in September.

Union Service To Be Held Out Doors On Sunday

Ewing Park To Be Scene Of Summer Union Service
On Sunday Evening

ELLWOOD CITY, July 20.—Due to the extreme hot weather of the last few days, a change has been made in the plans for the weekly summer union services on Sunday evening.

The services will be held in Ewing Park at 8 o'clock instead of the M. E. church as previously announced. They will be held there in case of rain. Rev. E. G. Aubrey, new pastor of the First Christian church, will be the speaker. Rev. R. H. Little will be in charge of the devotions.

A number of selections will be given by the community chorus under the leadership of Rev. B. G. Osterhouse of the First Baptist church. All the members of the choir are requested to be present on time.

Picnic Grove In Ewing Park Has Shelter House

ELLWOOD CITY, July 20.—Ellwood City's picnic grove in Ewing Park is the envy of surrounding communities.

Situated in a beautiful part of the town, right next to the woods and the Connoquessing creek, the grove of natural trees and grass, which is well kept up by the city, is undoubtedly the coolest spot in town during the past two weeks of torrid weather.

Besides all these natural advantages the grove boasts cool running water, gas ranges, good clean tables and two shelter houses. One of these just completed this spring as an RWD project is a spectacle of beauty. It has strong stone pillars, a triangular tile roof, and a concrete base. The two shelter houses are sufficient for taking care of a large number of people in case of rain.

Because of these advantages and easy access to the place visitors from far and near have been attracted.

RETURNING HERE FROM INDIA MISSION

ZELLENOPLE, July 20.—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Supple, and their children, are expected to arrive in Zellenople soon, from Assam, India, where they have spent the past 14 years as missionaries. They will spend several months here, their former home. They are missionaries of the Baptist church, and are touring across the continent, making stops in the interest of the missionary work.

Mrs. Supple was the former Ruth Lambert, and her mother, Mrs. W. J. Lambert resides on Grandview avenue, also her sister, Mrs. William Seaton. They are visiting a brother, John Lambert in Tulsa, Okla., enroute here, also.

Girl Scout Troop Enjoys Camping

Bob-O-Link Troop Spends Week Of Camping At Girl Scout Cabin

ELLWOOD CITY, July 20.—When old Mr. Sun peeked from the sky last Monday he saw a pleasant sight. Twelve Girl Scouts of the Bob-O-Link troop and four leaders had gathered at the Girl Scout Cabin Rocky Lum, Wurtemburg road, for a week of camping.

Mrs. Shields, troop captain, Miss Evelyn Spencer, Miss Jane Stitzer, and Miss Helen Gojten were the guardians. The lucky girls were "Vigilant," Gulbrandson, Helen Hayes, Averill Adams, Hazel Crofford, Ermina Peck, Beverly Groden, Jeanne Ward, Audrey Thomas, Kathleen and Harriet Tanner, and Margaret and Mildred Cable.

By 10 o'clock the camp life was established. The girls were divided into three patrols and assigned the various campers for the week. Late that afternoon it rained. The evening was spent in songs and stunts around an indoor fire. Because of the rain the girls slept on the porch and in the cabin. The next morning the campers were up bright and early to enjoy the fine and sunny day. The girls had a lovely time working and playing. Mrs. Shields was chief-cook and bottle washer. The food she served was wholesome and delicious. There was handicraft and swimming besides campers so that the girls were always busy.

Wednesday and Thursday passed speedily with the usual camp program. Wednesday evening a splendid performance was given by the girls around the camp fire for the benefit of the parents. A marshmallow roast followed. Every clear evening the girls had a camp fire at which they sang songs, gave plays and had toasted refreshments.

All too soon came Friday the day of departure. All handicraft and nature study was finished and the cabin put in order. After a perky supper and a few cheerful good-bys, the girls left for their homes not tired and sad, but with determination to spend another such week. The troop wishes to thank their many friends for their hearty cooperation and thoughtful gifts and the Business and Professional Women's club for the transportation.

Kathleen Tanner, Scribe.

Blood Poisoning Causes Death

ZELLENOPLE, July 20.—Word was received here Thursday night of the death of Fred V. Gibson, aged about 35, which occurred at the Kittanning hospital at 10:30 Thursday night from blood poisoning.

Mr. Gibson, a resident of Kittanning was visiting at the home of his wife, Mrs. Gibson, and last Saturday was cutting a log when a large splinter entered the fleshy part of his leg. He was taken to a physician and it was removed, and Tuesday he was taken to the Kittanning hospital. He was well known here, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Gibson of Clay sheet and spent his entire life here except for the past eight years. His wealth comes as a shock to his many friends and relatives.

Besides his wife, Anna Shodgrass Gibson, two daughters Peggy Lou and Julia Rose and one son, John, survive, also his parents here and the following brothers and sisters: Joseph of Bradford, Pa., Robert and David of Barboursville, Ohio; Billy, of Tarentum and Julia at home.

The body will be brought to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gibson on Clay street, and the funeral will be held there Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, and the body will be taken to Evans City following the service for burial.

CLASS HAS PICNIC

ELLWOOD CITY, July 20.—Class 19 of the Bell Memorial church held its annual picnic at Ewing Park last evening.

A good turnout was present. After dinner, contests and sports were enjoyed. The class will meet again on August 12.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The Ladies Missionary society of the Harmony Baptist church held their regular all day meeting on Thursday in the church basement. There were eleven women present and the time was spent in doing white cross work and patchwork.

The meeting in the afternoon was conducted by the president, Mrs. Cobb.

KITCHEN SHOWER

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Young were pleasantly surprised on last Saturday evening, when a number of their friends gathered at their camp near the Country Club and tendered them a kitchen shower. The affair was planned by the bride's mother, Mrs. Henry Kiesling. Games, music and songs wiled away the hours. At a later hour all present gathered around a blazing camp fire and enjoyed a wiener roast. Mr. and Mrs. Young received many useful gifts for use in their new home.

CASTLEWOOD NOTES

Stock Market
Firmers TodayAggressive Demands For Steels, Motors And Building SharesBy LESLIE GOULD International News Service Financial Editorial Writer

NEW YORK, July 20.—The stock market firmed near the close today under the impetus of aggressive demand for the steels, motors and building shares.

Trading, though was light and total volume for the short session fell below the half million share mark.

Oil also showed signs of support today as Socony-Vacuum and Texas Corp. rallied fractionally. Standard Oil of N. J., though, continued in the doldrums.

Demand for the steels centered in U. S. Steel and Bethlehem and in the motors for General Motors and Chrysler.

Power and Light shares were sluggish throughout being restrained by a steady dribble of liquidation in Columbia Gas.

Rails were well mixed and adversely affected by the selling in Southern Railway common and preferred both of which ruled near their lows for the year.

The market opened mixed and then turned down. Volume decreased on the downside, though, indicating there was no disposition on the part of traders to do any aggressive selling. Motor shares were the first to firm near the close, followed by the steels and other industrials.

Opening State Conventions Tonight

Headed by their state presidents, official delegates of post office clerks and rural letter carriers from New Castle and other Lawrence county points are leaving this afternoon for Conneaut Lake Park for the week end convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Post Office Clerks and Pennsylvania Federation of Rural Letter Carriers.

Thomas L. Donegan, Hillcrest avenue, is president of the clerks' organization and Albert L. Johnson, Highland Heights, president of the rural men's federation. They will play leading roles from tonight until Monday night.

Clare M. Lutz, William McIvor and Miss Allura Leslie will represent New Castle Local 227 of the clerks' organization while D. N. Reno, Wampum, and A. C. Reno and Watkins C. H. Matthews, this city, are the delegates of the rural carriers here.

The convention of the Western Pennsylvania Postmasters' association, in session on Monday, will take Postmaster Richard A. Steen to the lake.

Other groups of clerks, rural carriers and members of the clerks' auxiliary, also meeting over the week end, will attend from here.

The organization of a ladies' auxiliary to the rural carriers' organization will be one of the convention objectives, President Johnson announced before he left.

Soviet Flyers

Ready For Flight

Will Fly Over North Pole On Flight From Moscow To San Francisco

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—Confident the projected Moscow-to-San Francisco flight will be a success, M. G. Galkovitch, consul general here of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, today was making arrangements for an elaborate reception of the three Soviet airmen seeking to establish a new world's non-stop flight record.

Sigismund Adamovitch Levanovsky, noted Russian flyer, and his companions, will take-off anytime between now and July 29, weather permitting, Galkovitch said. They are expected to arrive here in 60 hours.

"Levanovsky is flying the shortest route between Moscow and San Francisco," Galkovitch said, "and it will take him directly over the North Pole. The entire 5,868 miles is to be non-stop."

Three Are Killed

During Storms

(International News Service)
ALBANY, N. Y., July 20.—A severe electrical storm, accompanied by heavy rains, struck the northern section of New York state last night and early today, causing three deaths and much property damage.

The three persons electrocuted were Frank Pelette, 19, struck by lightning at Niagara Falls, Augustus Johnson, 34, a farmer, felled while seated atop a load of hay at Glen Falls, and Byer Howell, a highway worker, killed while working with a road gang at Jamesville.

Saratoga Springs bore the brunt of the storm. Much damage to crops and farm property was caused in the district.

Of Camp PeriodWater Meeting Last Night At Camp East Brook Closes
Ten-Day Period

Ten days at Camp East Brook were brought to a close Friday evening with a water meet at the swimming pool and forty tanned girls said their farewells to each other and departed for their homes.

The water meet was conducted at 7 p. m. and was witnessed by the parents and friends of the girls. There was a demonstration of the progressive steps in learning the crawl stroke by the girls who were non-swimmers at the beginning of the camp period, and demonstrations by the beginners' class and intermediate and advanced classes.

Pat Christman, Marian Shaffer and Barbara White were winners of groups 1, 2 and 3 respectively, in the various contest events. These swimmers received East Brook emblems for their bathing suits.

The jack tournament which had been flourishing throughout the week was won by Helene Edgar and an emblem was awarded.

Nature study emblems were won during the camp period by Phyllis Siddall, Katherine Andrews, Barbara Bernard, Chesta Bair, Mary Louise McCalmont, Phyllis James, Mildred Tinner, Jean Miller, Anita Love, Vivian Shaffer, Marian Shaffer, Virginia Pence, Betty Drio, Beryl Morgan, Nancy McKee, Leanna Morgan, Barbara White, Jean Dufford, Virginia Morrison, Marjorie Walker, Betty Ree, Pat Christman, Peg Foster, Jean Wadlington, Sara Jane Cleland, Florence Glitch, Helene Edgar, Dorothy Hayes, Betty Hogue, Helen Hayes, Gladys Brown and Georgia Howland.

Press Against
So Much Advice
From Washington

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, July 20.—Business can put up a better fight against depressing economic conditions without so much advice from Washington, in the opinion of 51.3 per cent of 2,064 newspaper editors and publishers polled on the new deal by the weekly news-magazine, newsdom.

With almost every county in every state represented to date in the poll, latest figures show 1,058 of the 2,064 against the programs originating in Washington with the majority charging new deal failures directly to the president. A total of 663 hold recovery depends upon strict adherence to the administration's policies while 343 find Rooseveltian leadership acceptable with certain modifications and restrictions.

National Convention Held In New Haven

(International News Service)
NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 20.—Immediate cash payment of the soldiers' bonus and additional rehabilitation benefits were demanded in resolutions spread on the minute books of the annual national convention of Disabled American Veterans of the World War here today.

Following a stirring appeal by Congressman Patman of Texas, "father" of the bonus bill recently rejected by President Roosevelt, the convention adopted a resolution demanding immediate payment of the bonus despite strenuous objections from Joe McQueen of St. Louis, Mo., former national commander.

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—Mrs. Leah Clamplitt Sewell, one of the principals in the notorious "wife swapping" divorce case and more recently named in the Buster Keaton divorce suit, today had won alimony of $1,000 monthly, pending trial of her separate maintenance action against Barton Sewell, millionaire yachtman.

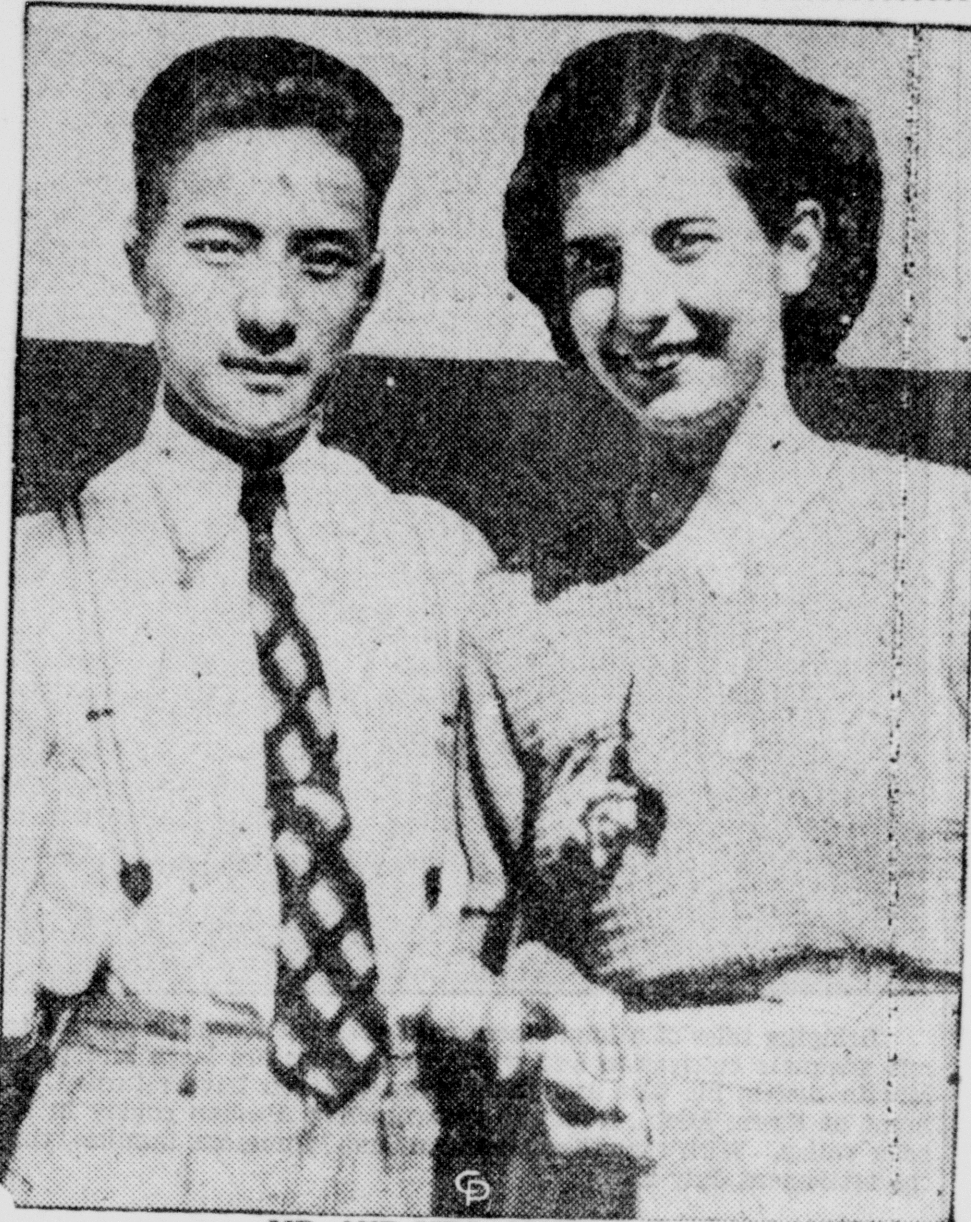

BURNING PAPER
CAUSE OF ALARM

Firemen were called to the building at 14 Long avenue, owned by J. S. Klamar, at 11:45 last evening by an alarm from box 83. Someone was burning paper in the furnace, and the smoke hung low about the building, leading residents in the vicinity to believe that the building was afire.

The Hito no Michi Kyo, a Neo-Shinto sect which has its headquarters in Osaka, Japan, is to distribute nickel images among its million adherents. These images will be placed on the shelves of Shinto tablets, and be the subject of prayers for national safety. However, being nickel, they will be given to the War Office in a time of crisis, and be turned into bullet casings.

President's Son, Bride Pose

MR. AND MRS. JAMES LIN

Here is one of the first photos taken together of K. M. James Lin, son of China's president, and his new bride, the former Viola Brown. The young couple have shunned the spotlight into which they were thrown when news leaked out of their sudden marriage and have proceeded with plans to start housekeeping in Columbus. Lin has been a student at Ohio State University and she a clerk in a ten-cent store there. Rumors that he had a wife and several children in China have been denied by Lin.

Pitched Battle At Sioux Falls, S. D.

(International News Service)
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., July 20.—National Guard companies were held in readiness today, to preserve order at the John Morrell packing plant here, following the pitched battle in which 50 men were injured. Two men were seriously injured in the fight which broke out when non-strikers attempted to break through union pickets lines.

The strike is the result of the Union's unsatisfied demand for reinstatement of union men discharged as the result of a strike last March.

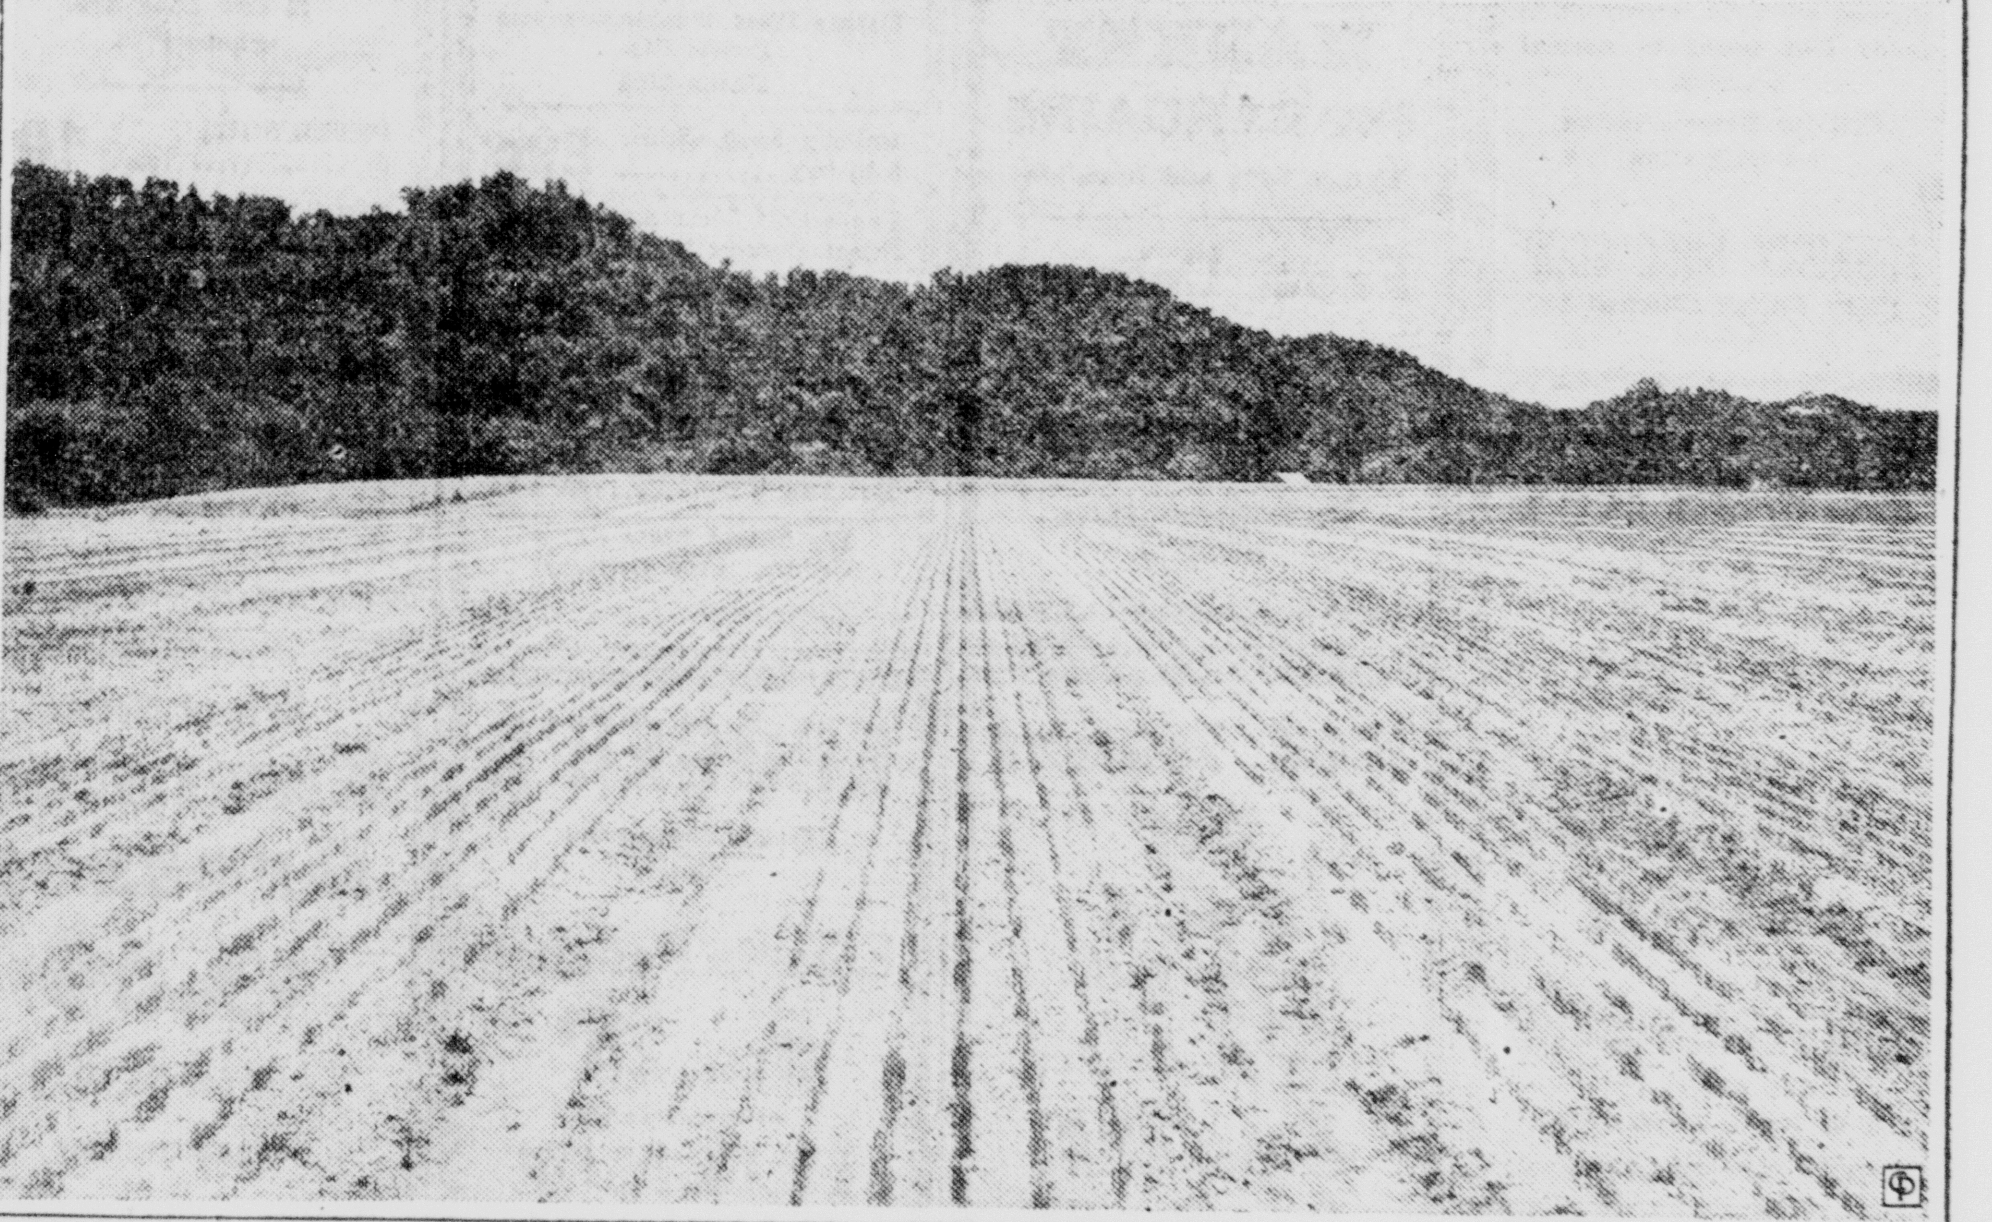

Council Bluffs, Iowa, July 20.—This city was on the verge of martial law today, following 24 hours of violence as the result of revival of the bitter Omaha-Council Bluffs street car strike.

Two men were seriously wounded in clashes between union men and strike breakers, while a number of others received minor injuries.

Operation of all street cars was ordered halted by city officials.

That his misfortune was caused by his 78 wives, is the explanation given by Ibrahim El Helbawi, who claims to be 139, when he recently applied for admission to the poorhouse in Cairo, Egypt. He was once a rich man. Ibrahim declared, however, that he always kept his matrimonial affairs within the limits prescribed by his religion, never having more than four wives at a time.

Millions of Trees as Dust Storm Insurance for Tennessee Valley

Millions of Virginia pine seedlings, planted this spring, are growing into useful trees at the Tennessee Valley Authority's nursery at Clinton, Tenn., near Norris dam. They will be transplanted next

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Calling Claude Claptrap

Court Restraint New Dealers' Aim

Would Effect Change By Means Of Amendment To Constitution

REACTION OF PUBLIC IN DOUBT

Central Press
Washington Bureau.
1900 E Street
By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 20.—New Dealers outspokenly have arrived at the conclusion that there can be no New Deal until the constitution has been so amended as to deprive the federal supreme court of the power to nullify acts of congress.

The high tribunal, as everyone knows, already has knocked NRA into a cocked hat.

Its decision on the devaluation of the government's gold bonds was, in effect, a government defeat. True, it was pointed out that, inasmuch as the government cannot be sued except with its own consent, the bondholders have no remedy, but the bench strongly intimated that it thought they ought to have.

Now federal courts of appeal have ruled against the constitutionality of AAA's processing tax and against PWA's right to have private property condemned for low-cost housing purposes.

PROBABLY WILL CONCUR

The AAA and PWA rulings to be sure, still are to be passed on by the supreme court, which may reverse them, but the general impression is that they will be upheld.

The New Dealers initially had an idea that the "nine old men on Capitol Hill" would not dare to nullify their enactments wholesale, lest they provoke a drastic curtailment of their own authority. Today they know better; the "nine old men's" nerve is A-1, however conservative some of them may be. And the puncturing of NRA, AAA and PWA in succession is a serious matter.

OTHER SETUPS THREATENED
Other alphabetical setups are threatened with punctures, too.

What's more, the New Dealers feel that much of their pending legislation is likely to be set aside, if it passes, by supreme court mandate.

In short, they simply can't "put across" their program with the supreme court exercising its present veto power—and with its most liberal members, such as Justices Brandeis and Cardozo concurring, as in the NRA case.

A DIRECT CHALLENGE

Hence President Roosevelt's recommendation that the Guffey coal bill be passed "whether constitutional or not," is interpreted as a direct challenge.

The implication was plain that the president's plan is to give plenty of rope to the "nine old men," to hang themselves with—to furnish them with so many acts of congress to nullify that their bench will make itself overwhelmingly unpopular.

It is a plan which might, or might not work—depending on public psychology.

The New Deal versus the U. S. supreme court!

It seems to be the next campaign issue.

PUBLIC REACTION IN DOUBT

It is a reason also for rushing through as much New Deal legislation as possible as rapidly as possible.

If it is delayed, the federal courts will not have time to pass on it before next election day. New stuff will not have time to get to the supreme court, anyway, but it will have time to be ruled on by district and circuit and appeal courts—and the supreme court's attitude will be guessed at.

It will be guessed at, generally, as against the New Deal—that clearly is indicated by the NRA decision.

The New Deal would have won against the supreme court a year or two ago.

That it can do so next year is problematic.

It will, if business has improved sufficiently; otherwise it is doubtful.

DOES NOT INDICATE DEFEAT

It does not necessarily mean that President Roosevelt will be beaten for re-election in 1936 if the supreme court is upheld.

He may win on his personality—and his opponent's lack of one. The New Deal can be beaten and he can be re-elected—and lapse into a simply ordinary president.

PIGEON REFUSES TO LEAVE HOME

AT GROVE CITY

GROVE CITY, July 20.—A homing pigeon that flew here from New Castle, Wednesday has refused to leave the home of Wallace Christley, where it is being fed, but no effort has been made to keep it. The bird had a note attached to its leg which read: "Fed, watered and rested July 16, 1935. Jane Shuler, 702 Court St., New Castle, Pa."

Although given its freedom, the bird has shown no inclination to leave the Christley home to continue its journey.

Foresters Will Have Picnic At Neshannock Falls

Catholic Order Of Foresters Will Have Outing On Sunday Afternoon

New Castle Court No. 1852, Catholic Order of Foresters, will play host to all Foresters and their friends tomorrow afternoon and evening at a free picnic in a grove near Neshannock Falls. Signs are being erected to mark the route through Croton direct to the picnic grounds. Transportation will be furnished from St. Joseph's church at 2 p. m.

A mushball game between the single men and the married men is to be played at 3 o'clock; keen rivalry is promised.

Committees have been appointed as follows:

General chairman, Paul Ellsworth; invitation committee, Charles Wirtz, chairman; Joseph Wendel, Alfred Tavolieri, Charles Kelley; grounds committee, John Seeger, chairman, William Clingan, Victor Trushel, William Krueger, P. Tavolieri; lunch committee, James Denny, chairman, Louis Krueger, Albert Brown, James Maher; sports committee, Charles Krueger, chairman, Joseph Wochner, Robert Grotz, Leander Krueger; publicity committee, Dr. L. J. Popp, Leo Moosman and Joseph Casey.

Members Of Masonic Organization From Four States Will Gather

Grotto members and members of the Masonic fraternity from four states will gather for a two-day outing at Conneaut Lake, August 3 and 4, it is announced by J. Clifford Franz, president of the Four-State Grotto Association.

There will be a banquet at Hotel Conneaut at 7 o'clock, followed by a grand ball in the Crystal room, during the evening. Saturday, and the evening will be marked by parties and other forms of entertainment.

In the afternoon, there will be a golf match on the 18-hole course at the lake.

YOUTH IS KILLED BY LIGHTNING STROKE

BUTLER, Pa., July 20.—Andrew Wise, Jr., 19, was killed instantly late Friday afternoon when struck by lightning during a severe electrical storm at the home of his parents in Penn township.

With the coming of the storm, the youth and his father retired to the house, the boy lying on a day-couch and the elder man on the floor in front of him.

Lightning struck the house, coming in by a radio wire.

Young Wise was struck on the chest, suffering severe burns that caused his death when he was carried from the house by his father, who was only momentarily stunned.

FIRST FAMILY TO DESERT ALASKA

Bringing tales of a land where frost does not leave the ground to permit adequate cultivation and where mosquitoes are large and persistent, Martin Smith, his wife and their seven children have returned to their home at Even, Mich., from the government's Alaskan colony in Matanuska valley. With six other Michigan and Minnesota families, they left the settlement July 5.

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. July 19, two arrests on a charge of disorderly conduct and on warrant.

Within a few days council will give serious consideration to a proposed ordinance for the refunding of city improvement certificates. According to solons they propose to call in certificates amounting to approximately $60,000 and exchange bonds for the certificates. The certificates draw six per cent interest and according to Solicitor Robert White, many of them are three or more years old. The bonds will not draw six per cent interest. The certificates were issued as liens against properties improved by the city. It costs the city considerable money to relieve the liens, White stated.

He believes that if the bill is enacted into ordinance many certificate holders will readily agree to exchange.

Officer-in-charge Al Knudsen of the state police detail here visited Mayor Charles Mayne and councilman colleagues yesterday. He informed the city officials that the state police detail will be held this year at "Troop D barracks, Butler. It will be the first time in five years that the rodeo has been staged in Butler. It will be held on Labor Day. Mounted drills, track riding and athletics will be staged. There are very few, if any bodies, which excel the state police of Red tape was never more predominant in governmental affairs than it is in the WPA, according to city officials. Plans for each project must be made in triplicate and each project requires about 27 pages, it is said here. Under a new regulation consideration will be paid to no proposed project unless the city has appropriated its share of the cost. This estimate includes the cost of the machinery needed, tools, cost of the supervising engineer's service and the material. Actually the city does not pay the cost of the machinery, tools, nor the supervising engineer's service because in most projects the city has already bought the machinery, tools and the city engineer is on the city payroll. However, the city must expend the money for materials. Sometime ago the WPA announced, it was reported, that cities which have money for materials and are prompt in sending in plans, will be favored.

Chief of Police John F. Haven has practically made all arrangements to obey the state law which says that effective September 6, police of third class cities shall have one day's rest in every seven. Most of the police work 365 days a year. Officers assigned to special duty outside the department receive Sunday off and traffic police work every day excepting Sunday when they are allowed off duty after morning church services end.

Apparently no heavy rainstorm falls here without a fire occurring. Most usually lightning strikes some home and within a minute or more pedestrians hear the shrieking siren of fire apparatus. Police have cooperated with firemen. As soon as the alarm sounds a cruiser car darts out of the police garage in search of automobilists who follow fire apparatus. Police regulations call for autoists to steer their cars to the right side of the highway then stop.

B'nai B'rith To Picnic Sunday

Members Of Lodge From Lawrence And Butler Counties
Will Participate

With favorable weather, a banner turnout is anticipated for the B'nai Brith picnic to be held Sunday, July 21, at Etna Springs Park. Due to its proximity to Butler, a large delegation from the Butler lodge is expected. The Butler B'nai Brith has expressed such a wonderful spirit of co-operation that the impression prevails that the picnic is a joint one of Butler and New Castle.

The committee wishes to correct a mistaken idea that an admission fee will be assessed against those attending the picnic. The committee originally had decided on a parking fee, but neither such a fee, nor any other will be charged.

All members of the local lodge, friends and members and friends of the various lodges of B'nai Brith are invited.

The races and various attractions have been planned to please all groups and all ages, with suitable awards in the various classes. Mush ball games, and golf matches will feature the athletic contests. A special novelty race is planned as a surprise, and the committee feels that this race will attract more merit and suspense among the audience than the contestants.

SIX HUNDRED AT OLD TIMER'S DAY

AT GROVE CITY

GROVE CITY, July 20.—Former local residents from seven states attended the annual Old Timer's Day here when more than 600 guests were served at a huge picnic which has come to be the feature of the local summer season. The registration book revealed guests from Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Ohio, Michigan, Florida, New Jersey and Maryland. The attendance was slightly below last year's record crowd.

Two families, that of Robert McCune and Mrs. Martha Miller, were represented by four generations. Among the older guests registered, over or nearing 90 years of age, were Mrs. Maria Craig, Mrs. Rebecca Forrest, Robert McCune, Mrs. Sylvester Gulick, Mrs. Lewis Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Locke.

Summer Activities Open At Shenango

Classes In Wide Variety Of Subjects To Be Conducted At School

Summer activities at Shenango Consolidated school will open within the next few days it was announced today, enrollment being possible on Monday July 22. The summer work at the school includes a wide variety of subjects. Vera F. Ramsey, director, today made the following announcement concerning the classes.

All wishing to enroll at Shenango Consolidated for summer activities should do so Monday, July 22, between the hours of 10 to 12 a. m., 1 to 3, or 6 to 7 p. m.

The proposed activities include: orchestra, choral work, i. e., operettas, cantatas, and so forth; dramatics; supervised recreatory reading, with the use of the school library; classes in clay modeling, sketching, water-coloring and printing; in athletics the program includes, tennis, volleyball, baseball, mushball, track, swimming and roller-skating; picnicking, camp-cooking, are also on the program.

These activities are open to anyone between the ages of 6 to 60 wishing to participate. Their main appeal, however, will be to pupils, students, and graduates of Shenango, able to attend at the scheduled hours, which of course will be tentatively arranged at the time of enrollment. All enrolling Monday at any of the above scheduled hours for enrollment should indicate in which activities they are interested.

WALTER WEDELL KILLED IN CRASH

(International News Service)

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 20.—New Orleans mourned the death today of Walter Wedell the second member of the Wedell family to be killed in an airplane crash. His brother, James R. "Jimmy" Wedell, world renowned speed pilot, was killed about a year ago.

Walter met his death late yesterday when a plane in which he was flying Howard Sanders to Mobile, Ala., developed motor trouble and plunged into shoal waters of the Gulf of Mexico near Chandeleur Island. Sanders, believed to be from Anderson, S. C., was also killed.
